THE MORMONS AND POLYGAMY.

Polygamy, among most people, is understood to be one of the leading features of the Mormon system. The Book of Mormon, which is the Bible of the Latter Day Saints, as they call themselves, does not countenance polygamy. In the third of the fifteen books of this interesting work, in the second chapter of the Book of Jacob it is written: "Were it not that I must speak unto you concerning a grosser crime, my heart would rejoice exceedingly because of you. But the word of God burthens me because of your grosser crimes. For behold, thus saith the Lord. This people began to wax in iniquity; they understand not the scriptures: for they seek to excuse themselves in committing whoredoms, because of the things written concerning David and Solomon his son. Behold, David and Solomon truly had many wives and concubines, which thing was abominable before me, saith the Lord, wherefore, thus saith the Lord, I have led this people forth out of the land of Jerusalem, by the power of mine arm, that I might raise up unto me a righteous branch from the fruit of the loins of Joseph. Wherefore I, the Lord God, will not suffer that this people shall do like unto them of old. Wherefore my brethren, hear me, and hearken to the word of the Lord: For there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife: and concubines he shall have none: For I, the Lord God, delighteth (sic) in the chastity of women."

Further along in the chapter, the Lamanites, a kindred tribe to the Nephites, are commended for their observance of monogamy. "Behold, the Lamanites, your brethren, whom ye hate, because of their filthiness and the cursings which hath (sic) come upon their skins, are more righteous than you: for they have not forgotten the commandment of the Lord which was given unto our fathers, that they should have, save it were one wife: and concubines they should have none: and there should not be whoredoms committed among them. And now this commandment, they observe to keep; wherefore, because of this observance in keeping this
