There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not; but, like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap, and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

To be fore-handed is almost as good as to be four-handed. To own a Remington Standard Type-writer is practically to be both.

VOL. XV.

SCHOOL SUPERVISION.

By J. L. PACKARD, LL.D.

12mo. Cloth, $1.00.

In this work is embodied the results of more than twenty years successful experience in town, State and city supervision of schools. The author outlines the history of school supervision in the United States; he discusses the work of the State, county, and city superintendent; the relation of the superintendent to teachers, pupils, parents, Boards of Education, etc.; he has included valuable chapters on examinations and promotions, on physical and moral education, on government and discipline; and has added appendices on the relation of public schools to morality and religion, and "What shall we do with our boys?" In all it is a work of great practical value to normal students, teachers, and to all engaged in the active work of supervision.
