OCTOBER, 1898.

---

AT CLASS OF '98 RALLY.

Broadens now the flowing river,
Comrades, feather clean your oars,
Sit in order true as ever,
Near we now the tidal shores.

Singing all the winding way,
Through the hills and meadow lands,
In the cloudy, cloudless day,
Past we rapids, shining strands.

Deep voiced now the sea is call'ing,
Comrades, greet it, hearts elate !
Every fear with hope forestalling,
Onward, onward, Ninety-Eight.

THEODORE H. RAND.

Honorary President.
