

Third Grade B { 1. P. Turcotte.
2. T. Bradley.
3. G. Casman.

Third Grade A { 1. J. Stuber.
2. L. Street.
3. J. Dempsey.

Fourth Grade { 1. D. Kearns.
2. E. Lonegan.
3. J. Jacques.

sible position in the employ of the C.P.R. at Schreiber, Ont., is in the city on a holiday visit to relatives and friends. He was much surprised at the growth of his Alma Mater, and could scarcely realize that the St. Joseph's College of his student days had evolved into the present University.

Mr. Albert Morel, commercial graduate of '88 has returned to the city from South Dakota, and accepted a situation in the Department of the Interior.

PRIORUM TEMPORUM FLORES.

Rev. Mr. C. C. Delany, '91, has gone to the Seminary of St. Sulpice in Paris, to more fully prepare himself for the sacred dignity of the priesthood. After spending some time in France he will continue his studies in Rome, the fountain-head of Catholic truth. It affords us great pleasure to have this opportunity of acknowledging the deep debt of gratitude which we owe to Mr. Delany for the many valuable services which he was ever ready to perform in the interest of the OWL. His graceful poetry and finished prose have done much to win for our journal a fair name. We wish our ex-editor thorough success in his new labors. Our present number shows that distance does not prevent Mr. Delany from giving very tangible proofs of interest in Alma Mater and her journal.

Mr. Jobson Paradis, a member of the class of '90, is engaged in the study of painting and drawing in Paris, France. May his well-known artistic tastes and talents lead on to a successful career!

We learn with pleasure that Mr. J. T. McNally, '92, and Mr. Thos. Curran, '91, are winning golden opinions for themselves at the Propaganda, Rome. Mr. McNally lately obtained the degree of Ph. D. and Mr. Curran that of B. D. We extend our sincere congratulations to both gentlemen.

Mr. Alfred O'Connor, an old student of the seventies, now occupying a respon-

Rev. James McKechnie of the class of '85 is now a curate in Worcester, Mass.

SUBRIDENDO.

FOOTBALL.

I took the gentle Annabel
To see a football game
And thus unto a friend of hers
Did she describe the same :

"O May, you should have seen them play,
'Twas such a lovely sight ?
And though the first game I had seen
I understood it quite.

"First came the Vales, all dressed in blue,
Then Harvard came in red,
One fellow yelled, the rest all tried
To jump upon his head.

"And then one fellow stopped and stooped,
And all the rest got round :
And every fellow stopped and stooped
And looked hard at the ground.

"And then another fellow yelled,
And each man where he stood,
Just hit, and struck, and knocked and kicked
At every one he could.

"And then one fell upon his neck,
And all the others ran,
And on his prone and prostrate form
Leaped every blessed man.