ONTARIO GOVERNMENT TIMBER SALE.

It is understood that the Ontario Government has decided to change in one respect the conditions governing the sale of timber berths in the districts of Nipissing, Algoma and Rainy River to be held on December 9th. Purchasers of limits will be allowed fifteen years in which to remove the timber, instead of ten years as stated in the original conditions.

CURRENT TRADE CONDITIONS.

ONTARIO.

Lumber is not moving as actively as one week ago. The high freight rates have restricted shipments, many manufacturers having decided to carry over until next spring stock which earlier in the season they intended to ship. The increased rates have also resulted in some cases in the dropping of negotiations which were under way for the purchase of stock. These circumstances are not such as to give strength to the market. Nevertheless, a number of inquiries have been received for small lots of pine lumber for shipment to Buffalo and Tonawanda and other eastern centres. The Ray City and Saginaw dealers have moved most of the stock bought in Ontario and are in good shape for the winter business. Box lumber and good culls continue to have the call and prices of these grades are exceptionally strong. Hemlock is also moving somewhat freely and the supply of dry stock at the mills
