Raw Furs at Montreal.

Beaver and otter are in fair demand for the local trade, and good prices are paid for prime skins. There is scarcely any enquiry for bear, lynx and skunk, and prices are declining. In other lines there is virtually no change to mention. A few lots of mink, skunk and muskrat are coming in and realizing within the range of quotations which are for average primeskins. Extra size or quality are worth more, damaged or unprime skins proportionately lower.

Beaver, per lb.	$ 4 00 to 4 50
Bear, large, per skin	$10 00, 12 50 15 00
Bear, cub, per skin	$4 00, 6 00 8 00

Toronto Grocery Market.

The local market presents no important features. The weather this week has been so damp and disagreeable as to seriously affect the Christmas trade. Payments are dull. Teas are fairly active; small lots of low grade Japanes have sold at 15 to 18c, and sales of Young Hysons have been made at 23 to 25c, and blacks at 30 to 35c. Coffee dull but firm at 22c for good Rios, and 25 to 28c for Javas. Sugars dull and unchanged; refiners say that yellows are now comparatively lower here than in New York, and that they have made no concessions; prices range from 5½c for a no brand to 6½c for a bright; granulated remains at 7½ to 7¾c. Porto Rico molasses are offered in 140 gal puncheons at 37c. Rice and spices are unchanged. Canned goods are fully as active as usual for this time of the year; tomatoes are selling at $1.10 to $1.20; corn, at $1.10 to $1.35; peas, $1.25 to $1.35; peaches, at $2.25 for 2's and $3.25 for 3's. Apples are not so firm, 3's are selling at 90 to 95c and gallons at $2.25. Dried fruit has been quite active. Valencia raisins are very firm; small lots are selling at 7c, and jobbers are buying at 6½c for prime off-stalk. Currants are firm, at 5½ to 5¾c for ordinary provincial, in barrels; a few old are offered at 4½c. Dates are selling at 5½c in lots, and 6 to 6½c for retailers' quantities. Mat figs scarce and firm, at 5c. Prunes unchanged; cables firm. London layers slow, at $3.15 to $3.25. New Grenoble walnuts in good demand, at 16c.—Toronto Empire.
