THE FIRST OF JUVENILE PERIODICALS

GOOD THINGS

FOR THE YOUNG OF ALL AGES. EDITED BY GEORGE MACDONALD, AND ILLUSTRATED BY THE BEST ARTISTS.

* This Magazine has hitherto been issued under the title of "GOOD WORDS FOR THE YOUNG." To mark the important changes and improvements which have been introduced, it has been thought well to alter the name to the simpler and prettier one given above.

GOOD THINGS will address itself to the young of all ages, from the little beginner, who can just read a picture, to the big boys and girls who study at the desk or about the playground; and so onwards up to the veteran, who, after all their learning, turn to the children for a fresher wisdom, and after all their work, sit in the shady corner and play the old games over again in their heads.

"GOOD THINGS" hopes, as a periodical, to have its margins well thumbed and dog-eared; and when the binder has returned home and made it fit for the library, the volume will try for a fixed place there in good company. The favors of a multitude of assorted "goodies" cannot be put into a prospectus; but the

NOVEMBER PART WILL SPEAK FOR ITSELF.

For sale by all Booksellers and Periodical Dealers.

TERMS.—Yearly Subscription, $2.50 Single Number 25 cents, with Lippincott's Magazine $5.00. Liberal Clubbing Rates. Specimens Number mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 20 cents.
