THE JUDGE'S STORY.

Hon. John M. Rice Tells How He Was Cured of Sciatic Rheumatism—Crippled for Six Years.

The Hon. John M. Rice, of Louisa, Lawrence county, Kentucky, has for many years served his native county and state in the legislature at Frankfort and Washington, and until his retirement was a noted figure in political and judicial circles. A few days ago a Kentucky Post reporter called upon Judge Rice, who, in the following words, related the history of the causes that led to his retirement: "It is just about six years since I had an attack of rheumatism. Slight at first, but soon developing into sciatic rheumatism, which began first with acute, shooting pains in the hips, gradually extending downward to my feet. My condition became so bad that I eventually lost all power of my legs, and then the liver, kidneys and bladder, and, in fact, my whole system became deranged. I tried the treatment of many physicians, but receiving no lasting benefit from them I went to Hot Springs, Ark. I was not much benefited by some months stay there, when I returned home. In 1891 I went to the Silurian Springs, Wakeshaw, Wis. I stayed there some time, but without improvement. Again I returned home, this time feeling no hopes of recovery. The muscles of my limbs were now reduced by atrophy to mere strings. Sciatic pains tortured me terribly, but it was the disordered condition of my liver that I felt, gradually wearing my life away. Doctors gave me up, all kinds of remedies had been tried without avail, and there was nothing more for me to do but resign myself to fate.

"I lingered on in this condition sustained almost entirely by stimulants until April, 1893. One day I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. This was something new, and as one more drug after so many others could do no harm, I was prevailed upon to try the Pink Pills. The effect of the pills was marvelous, and I could soon eat heartily, a thing I had not done for years. The liver began to perform its functions, and has done so ever since. Without doubt the Pills saved my life, and while I do not crave notoriety I cannot refuse to testify to their worth."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post-paid, on receipt of price (50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50,) by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y.

MR. A. ANDERSON, of this city, who is making a business trip to the towns along the Canadian Pacific Railway between Toronto and Victoria, B.C., is authorized to represent GRIP and to take subscriptions and grant receipts in our name. We trust he will receive a cordial reception from GRIP's friends and be able to add many new names to our list.

GRIP is always glad to hear of anything being done for the good of the boys, and he therefore welcomes "Night and Day," for July, which tells of Dr. Barnardo's work among the waifs of the great cities of England. Whatever opinion may prevail as to the wisdom of bringing this class of immigrants to Canada, all must rejoice to see the boys rescued from lives of idleness and shame on the streets and given a chance to grow up useful citizens. Dr. Barnardo has had to do with 14,000 waifs last year, and we are satisfied has accomplished much good. He asks his friends to practice a self-denial week for the benefit of his charity. In addition to "Night and Day," which tells all about his work, he is about to publish a new magazine, "Our Bubble," all the illustrations of which are to be chromo-lithographs.

APPLETON'S POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY

Edited by WM. JAY YOUMANS.

The Popular Science Monthly is without a competitor.

It is not a technical magazine.

It stands alone as an educator, and is the best periodical for people who think.

All its articles are by writers of long practical acquaintance with their subjects, and are written in such a manner as to be readily understood.

It deals particularly with those general and practical subjects which are of the greatest interest and importance to the people at large.

Besides this, it keeps its readers fully informed of all that is being done in the broad field of science.

A reference to the contents of any of the late numbers will more than confirm the foregoing statement.

$5.00 per annum ; specimencopy, 25c
