Mercantile Summary.

J. W. BRODRICK, of London, has purchased the stock of the Smart Tea Company, Toronto, for sixty cents on the dollar. It was valued at $1,749.31.

SEVEN carloads of green sealskins, en route from Alaska to London, England, via the Grand Trunk, passed through London, Ont., recently. They were valued at about $50,000 a carload.

The largest land fur shipment of this year was made last week by the Hudson Bay Company from Victoria to London, says the Winnipeg Free Press of the 12th. The collection embraced $25,000 worth of beaver skins and $10,000 worth of bear.

It should be the effort of every storekeeper, says the Kansas Grocer, to treat his customers so well that on their departure it will not be necessary for him to say "call again." His whole manner should indicate that he enjoys their company as well as their patronage.

We learn that Messrs. Thos. Dunnet & Co., fur merchants, 34 Wellington street west, will remove during the present month to more commodious premises at 30 Wellington street west, in this city, their large and growing trade requiring more extensive business faci-ties than their former warehouse admitted.

A BRANCH of the Yorkshire Guarantee and Securities Company, limited, of Huddersfield, England, with a capital of $2,000,000, is to be established in New Westminster. The institution will do private banking and loan money on real estate securities. A. E. Tregent, lately with the Baker Bros., Vancouver, will manage it.
