

3. If a person is not entitled to an old age benefit on the basis of the periods credited under the legislation of one of the Parties, entitlement to that benefit shall be determined by totalizing these periods and those stipulated in the following paragraph of this Article, provided that these periods do not overlap.

4. (a) For purposes of establishing entitlement to an old age benefit payable by Canada under paragraph 5 of this Article, residence in the territory of both Canada and Jamaica, beginning on or after January 1, 1966 and after the age specified and determined in this administrative arrangement with respect to the legislation of Canada, shall be counted as residence in the territory of Canada.

(b) For purposes of establishing entitlement to an old age benefit payable by Jamaica under paragraph 6 of this Article,

(i) a contribution which has been made to the Canada Pension Plan for the year 1966 shall be accepted as 39 weeks of contributions under the legislation of Jamaica;

(ii) a year in which a contribution has been made to the Canada Pension Plan, or in which a disability pension is payable thereunder, commencing on or after January 1, 1967, shall be accepted as 52 weeks of contributions under the legislation of Jamaica, but where an event occurs during that year which gives rise to a claim under the legislation of either Party, only the number of weeks preceding that event shall be accepted as weeks of contributions under the legislation of Jamaica;

(iii) a week commencing on or after April 4, 1966 which would be a week of residence for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act and in relation to which no contribution has been made under the Canada Pension Plan shall be accepted as a week of contributions under the legislation of Jamaica.

5. The competent institution of Canada shall calculate the amount of its old age benefit at the rate of 1/40th of the full pension for each year of residence in Canada which is recognized as such in subparagraph 4(a) of this Article or deemed as such under Article VII of this Agreement.

6. The competent institution of Jamaica shall calculate the flat-rate portion of its old age benefit in accordance with Article X 5(b) and (c) of this Agreement. The wage-related portion of its old age benefit will be calculated under the terms of the National Insurance Act of Jamaica.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, where the total credited periods is not equal to at least ten years, Canada will not be liable to pay any old age benefit under this Article, and when this period is not equal to at least twenty years, Canada will not be liable to pay any old age benefit by virtue of this Article outside of its territory.
