10 March 1994, expressed his concerns that such a plan would be contradictory to the Governors Island Agreement and therefore could not be accepted by him.

4. In these circumstances, the Security Council may wish to consider authorizing the extension of the mandate of the UNMIR in its present form for a period of three months, which would allow for the possibility of reactivating the Mission with a minimum of delay, should the current political impasse be breached and implementation of the Governors Island Agreement be resumed.
