

LIST OF STUDIES

Malaysia and Indonesia: Forestry - This study identifies business opportunities for Canadian suppliers of manufactured goods and consulting services in Malaysia and Indonesia including logging, sawmilling, logging vehicles, veneers, plywood, panel board, pulp and paper. (Available now)

Indonesia: Telecommunications - Summarizes Indonesian development requirements in telecommunications and identifies the potential scope for Canadian industrial participation in this sector. (Available in November).

Singapore: Market Studies - These review business opportunities in Singapore for the sale of Canadian-made equipment and services including: furniture, food, automotive parts, sporting goods, computer software products, aerospace products and services, telecommunications, oil and gas equipment and services (Available in September)

Thailand and Malaysia: Food Irradiation - Assesses the market potential for Canadian food irradiation and related technologies in Thailand and Malaysia. (Available now)

Thailand: Telecommunications - Offers information to exporters on the telecommunications market in Thailand through the Telephone Organization of Thailand (TOT) and the Communications Authority of Thailand (CAT) which account for 70% of the Thai market. (Available now)

Thailand: Agro-Food Processing - Provides information to Canadian suppliers on investment opportunities in the agro and food processing industry in Thailand. (Available now)

India: Oil and Gas Services - This study will be used to guide the activities of an oil and gas services mission going to India late September 1986. The information gathered during the mission will be available to services companies later in the fall.

India: High Technology Market - This study is now underway. Its Phase I aims at identifying key contacts for Missions visiting India this fall. Phase II will provide an overview of the market for computers, software, robotics and office automation and an analysis of the Indian government policies in these sectors. (Full study available by December).