Mr. SPEAKER: I declare the motion carried.

Mr. CANNON: Before you declare the motion carried I wish to call the attention of Your Honour to the fact that five members have voted whose vote can be challenged. However, I do not wish to bring this question up to-night; I am simply calling Your Honour's attention to the fact that I reserve my right to take any further action which may be necessary.

Mr. SPEAKER: I would remind the House that the challenging of the vote of an hon. member cannot be made by raising a point of order. There must be a direct charge embodied in a substantive motion.

Mr. HANNESSON: I was paired with the hon. member for St. Boniface (Mr. Howden). Had I voted I would have voted against the motion.

Mr. EDWARDS (South Waterloo): I was paired with the hon. member for North Waterloo (Mr. Euler). Had I voted I would have voted against the motion.

Mr. MORIN (St. Hyacinthe): I was paired with the hon. member for London (Mr. White). Had I voted I would have voted for the motion.

Mr. FONTAINE (Translation): Mr. Speaker, I was paired with the hon. member for Ottawa (Mr. Chabot). Had I voted I would have voted for the motion.

Mr. BIRD: I wish to explain to the House, and with extreme regret, that I was paired with the hon. member for Peace River (Mr. Kennedy) who had retired from the House on account of indisposition, and I cast my vote inadvertently.

Mr. PARENT: Mr. Speaker, I think the rule is that once a vote has been cast and recorded it cannot be recalled.

Mr. SPEAKER: Order. The rule is that when a vote has been recorded, when the result has been proclaimed, and when the motion has been declared carried or lost, that expresses the judgment of the House. This principle is to be found in May, who says at page 343 that a vote once given cannot be withdrawn.

As regards the claim made by the hon. member for Nelson that he was paired, May, at page 336, says:
