RAILWAY COMMITTEE

REFERENCE TO REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS ON BELL TELEPHONE BILL

On the orders of the day:

Mr. JEAN FRANÇOIS POULIOT (Temiscouata): Mr. Speaker, it is unusual but I have a correction to make in the minutes of proceedings and evidence of the standing committee on railways, canals and telegraph lines which studied the Bell Telephone bill. The committee has reported to the house that it will not sit again, and therefore this is the only way I can make the correction.

On page 48 of the proceedings, speaking to Mr. Macaulay, I am reported as follows:

Mr. Pouliot: Make it the best you can and I would be satisfied with your answer, because you have a nice face.

I never said that. I paid a much higher tribute than that to the gentleman. I said "because you have an honest face," which is a great tribute to this man.
