

April
Twelfth 1921.

Mrs. H. M. Simpson,
364 University Street,
Montreal.

Dear Mrs. Simpson:-

I duly received your letter of April 6th, and acted in accordance with your request regarding your cheque.

I find that there is no use of my presenting it yet and this is to intimate to you that I shall present it again on Friday next and must insist that you make provision to meet it.

Yours faithfully,