AN OVERCOAT OPPORTUNITY
In certain lines of business weather and trade are closely identified. An unusually mild season in the opening months of the winter season such as has been this year's experience means a diminishing demand for winter goods. Optimistic as human nature always is even the purchase of necessities when not imperatively required, is postponed till a more opportune time.

But that provides the opportunity for those who save money by taking advantage of favorable chances. And just now, winter overcoats—there is bound to be winter weather before the first spring airs—are offered by such well known houses as that of Hickey & Pascos at exceptionally low prices. Blue-Whitney Shawl Collar Overcoats, form-values $20, can now be bought for $15, and the very cream of their overcoat stock, $25 and $35 values, for $17.50. These goods combine fine quality and excellence in style, are high grade fabrics, and are even more attractive in intrinsic values. Hickey & Pascos are open till 9 p.m.
