

POL

- Polyandry, list of tribes regarded as polyandrous, 115
 — considered as an exceptional phenomenon, 115, 116
 — widely distributed over India, Thibet, and Ceylon, 116
 Polygamy, causes of, 114, 115
 Polynesians, relationship, through females in, 124
 — their drawings, 32
 — polyandry among them, 116
 — their powers of witchcraft, 174
 — animal-worship among them, 194
 — their worship of men, 267
 — their method of numeration, 339
 — their property in land, 353
 — their laws, 364
 Pond-worship, 217
 Priests, absence of, among the lower races, 279
 Prussians, their ancient fires in honour of the god Potrimpos, 230

QUIPPU, the, of the Peruvians, 36

RAIN, worship of, 219

- Rainbow, worship of the, 234
 Rattle, the, regarded as a deity, 234
 Reddies of Southern India, marriage customs of the, 63
 Reindeer, ancient drawing of a, 31, 32
 Rejangs of Sumatra, their custom of fling and disfiguring the teeth, 49
 Relationship among savages, 58
 Relationships independent of marriage, 71
 — adoption, 75
 — the milk-tie, 76
 — change in the relationship female to the male line, 125, 126
 — system of kinship of the Iroquois and Huron Indians, 127-129
 — through females, 120
 — — males, 126
 — present system, 130
 Religion of savages, 131
 — their mental inactivity, 132
 — character of their religion, 135
 — classification of the lower religions, 136
 — sequence of religions according to Sanchoniatho, 137
 — religious condition of the lowest races, 391
 — tribes among whom religion is absent, 140

ROM

- Religion of Savages—continued.
 — rudimentary religion, 143
 — — dreams, 144
 — — a man's shadow, 147
 — — spirits at first regarded as evil, 148
 — — and causing disease, 150
 — — low ideas of spirits entertained by savages, 154
 — — belief in ghosts, 159
 — — absence of belief in a future state, 160
 — — plurality of souls, 162
 — — divination and sorcery, 163-169
 — — witchcraft, 170
 — — religious dances, 178
 — gradual development of religious ideas, 181-187
 — — fetishism, 242
 — — totemism, 137, 183, 248
 — — animal worship, 184
 — — deification of inanimate objects, 200
 — — tree-worship, 203
 — — water-worship, 213
 — — worship of stones and mountains, 220
 — — fire-worship, 229
 — — worship of the sun, moon, and stars, 201
 — — sundry other worships, 205
 — — developmental and adaptational changes, 235
 — — Shamanism, 252
 — — idolatry, 256
 — — worship of ancestors and of men, 264, 265
 — — worship of principles, 260
 — — sacrifices, 269, 270
 — — temples, 277
 — — the soul, 280-283
 — — the future state, 284
 — — creation, 287
 — — prayer, 288
 — — the nature of idols, 291
 — — connection of religion and morality, 311
 — — progress of religious ideas among savages, 394, 395
 Right, connection of, with law, 307
 Rishis, or penitents, of India, how regarded, 154
 River-worship, 214
 Rock sculptures, 46
 — of Western Europe, 46
 Romans, their notions respecting their deities, 156
 — sorcery among them, 168