

- PARDONING power, i. 727
- Parliament, English, referred to, i. 32, 52, 162, 171, 278 sqq.; 530; ii. 230
- Parties, Political, in America: their development, i. 5; effect of the struggle over the Constitution of 1789, 23; their interference with presidential elections, 39, 41; growth of a Federalist party, 88, 378, 639; influence of parties in the Senate on foreign policy, 104; their cohesion in Congress, 146; no real party government in America, 285; State parties engulfed by the National, 540; causes of this, 542; its results, 543; cases of genuine State parties, 547; factions, 548; party spirit in rural local government, 539; in cities, 597, 610; importance of the parties, 636; their history, 638; Federalists and Republicans, 639; National Republicans or Whigs, and Democrats, 644; Republican party of 1856, 647; the foundations of party in America compared with Europe, 648; the antithesis of liberty and order, 650; no definite principles in the modern parties, 653; illustrations of this, 656; composition of the Republican party, ii. 1; of the Democratic, 3; politics of immigrants, 5; of negroes, 7; influence of religion, 8; geographical distribution of parties, 8; lesser organizations, 10; test of a party, 10; Greenbackers, 10, 177; Labour party, 11, 259, 705; Prohibitionists, 13, 177, 432; Women's Suffrage party, 15, 173, 424; the Mugwumps, 15, 19; causes of the persistence of the parties, 17; eminent leaders less important than in Europe, 20; the selection of candidates, 22, 52, 142; social influence of parties, 22; their connection with State politics, 23; the politicians, 24 (see Politicians); the best men indisposed for politics, 37; party organization (q.v.), 44; types of statesmen produced, 194; public opinion and the system, 204; the strength of party founded on the national character, 253; Know-nothing party, 253; the parties and independent opinion, 288, 296; their future, 698
- Party government a necessary evil, i. 70; its meaning in America, 285
- Party organization in America: its perfection, i. 74; in Congress, 145-148, 198; the party caucus, 201; aims of a party organization in Europe, ii. 44; in America, 45; modes of selecting candidates, 45; the American system, 46; its history, 47; the Machine, 50; organizing committees, 50; primaries, 52, 61, 69, 134; nominating conventions (q.v.), 52, 142; procedure, 53; tests of party membership, 55; party loyalty, 55; profusion of elections, 58; case of Ohio, 59; of Massachusetts, 61; the results, 62; the working of the Machine in the country, 65; in large cities, 66; manipulation of elections, 68; the Rings (q.v.), 74, 78, 134, 237, 335, 354, 360; the Bosses, ii. 76, 80; States, Trades, and Tickets, 79, 80; hatred of reformers, 83; revenues of the Ring, 83; sale of offices, 85; the system strongest in cities, 88; illustrations, 88, 89; exceptional in rural districts, 93; and in the South, 95; spoils, 97; party organizations at elections, 110; presidential election, 142, 168; organization in Massachusetts, 719; lessons for Europe, 480; its future, 697
- Patents, i. 30, 85
- Patronage, i. 56-61, 105, 106; ii. 97 sqq., 111. See Spoils System
- Paupers, i. 588
- Payment of legislators, i. 190
- Pendleton Act of 1883, ii. 105
- Pennsylvania, State of, i. 539, 580, 686
- Pensions, i. 85, 174
- Philadelphia, City of, i. 606; ii. 351, 371
- Philadelphia, Convention of 1787, i. 19-22, 26, 219, 274, 305, 318, 638, 664; ii. 269
- Philadelphia Gas Ring, ii. 354-371
- Philanthropy in America, ii. 579
- Plan of the Work, i. 4
- Plato, referred to in connection with democracy, ii. 614
- Plutocratic element in America, ii. 479, 600, 603
- Police, The, in America, ii. 359, 440 sqq.