

Carleton rated able seamen in the same book, and mustered for the whole time they were rated?

A. Yes.

Q. On what day were they rated?

A. On the 19th day of August per log.

Q. Did you ever see them on board the ship during those months?

A. No.

Court.—Q. Were you ever out of the ship in those months?

A. I was on shore occasionally on leave.

Q. Do you know, that, during the time you were on shore, those people had never been on board?

A. I never heard they had.

Q. Might they not have been on board, and you have never heard of it?

A. I should think they might.

Prosecutor.—Q. Were not the names of Guy Carleton and George Carleton borne as captain's servants on the same book, and mustered from the day they were borne until the latter end of September?

A. Yes.

Q. On what day were they entered?

A. On the 19th day of August per log.

Q. Did you ever see them on board the ship during those months?

A. No.

Court.—Q. Do you know they were not on board in those months?

A. I never heard they had been on board.

B

Pro-