

Turf The Nigger Wins Toronto Cup

Note and Comment

There was over $300,000 wagered in the mutuels yesterday at Woodbine Park, showing how kindly the public have taken to the new form of betting. There was $20,000 bet alone on the Toronto Cup, giving the O.J.C. $194,435 as their 5 per cent. The money was bet, straight $15,000, place $300, and show $14,545. Only $1612 was bet on The Nigger three ways, straight $84, place $321 and show $947. You can thus easily prove the O.J.C.'s mutuels correct. There was no less than $15,553 bet, three ways on the Hildreth horse, and $3999 altogether on Cliff Edge, the best horse in the race that finished third.

There are undoubtedly some with honest intentions who object to the new system, but the great majority of opponents are those with a grudge. The bookmaker and his friends are the chief kickers. The perambulating owner who paraded a horse of his own in the northern circuit year after year without winning brackets is eliminated from Woodbine. There is nothing for him at this track—no object in starting his skates for his sucker public to bet him. Yet he has earned the most some way to pay for his and oats. The sure thing gambler does not like the mutuels, but he is here on furlough waiting for the tracks that tolerate the books.

S. C. Hildreth's champion was beaten fair and square yesterday. Sure Mr. Hildreth is not altogether causing the small fields. There were plenty in the Cup. He did not hold them down to four in the third, for he had nothing there.

The mutuels are here to stay. The better element favor the French pools because they can see the improvement in every department. The skate horses, the sure thing bookmaker and player, and the crook with the information are gone forever as far as the O.J.C. is concerned.

The observers, too, are at the track, mind you, and it will be a seven days' wonder if legislation does not come to make the mutuels the legal form of betting in this country, so that all tracks must cut out the crooks' whether they like it or not and thus save for all time the sport of kings.

King James came over for a day in 1906 and the same time last year, and on each occasion won the Toronto Cup, but the task was too tough for the entire Hildreth stable in 1911. The Nigger's time equaled the track and race record, which was: Minnie Adams, 1:22, made in 1904. Other Toronto Cup winners were: 1901, Martinus; 1902, Samazano; 1903, Gold Cure; 1904, Claude; 1904, Fort Hunter; 1905, Tongador; 1905, Inferno, and 1908, Cliff Turley.

The old record for 154 furlongs of 1:06-1/2 was made by Seagrass's Purisane, when 2-year-old, carrying 103 lbs. Novelty yesterday carried 110 and was never pressed.

LEAFS AND ORIOLES SPLIT THE SERIES

Win the Morning and Lose Afternoon Game—Kocher Injured—The Games.

The Leafs made it an even break on the series with Baltimore, by winning the morning and losing the afternoon game yesterday. It was Toronto all the way in the morning and just the reverse after dinner. Cather pitched a nice game and had it all over Dykert and Pope in the early session while Vickers and Adkins bested Killian and Rudolph in the last game of the series.

Catcher Bradley Kocher, who has been filling Eddie Phelps' shoes so well since the first catcher had his thumb broken, had his finger split in the fifth inning of the second game. He played the innings and the sixth, but retired and Slattery replaced him.

Vickers quit in the seventh inning of the second game, when Toronto was getting to him, and Manager Dunn put Doc Adkins in for the rest of the game.

The Morning Game.
Jack Dunn sent in Dykert, late of Connie Mack's Athletics, in the morning game to make it two in a row, but the Leafs took kindly to his slants and along with his wildness corralled four runs in two innings. Pope was sent in in the third and managed fairly well until the seventh, when three runners were tallied by the Leafs.

A lone run in the fifth made the final score—Toronto 7, Baltimore 2. Ted Cather was on the mound for Toronto and held the visitors safe at all stages, tho he weakened a trifle in the last session.

Bill O'Hara was very much in the limelight, with four hits and scoring a run in four times up, besides playing a perfect game in the field, according to six chances without a misplay, two of them hard running catches.

Baltimore started in by taling one in the initial innings when Parent opened up with a single to centre. O'Hara with run number one. Jordan singled over second and Shaw romped in with another. Bradley made the putout. Corcoran struck out and Schmidt got a life when Bradley let his grounder go thru his legs.

Rath crossed the platter. Heitmueller was an easy out.
The Leafs came right back in their half, with two counters: Pitt was an infield out, O'Hara's bases were double to the centre field bleachers sent in O'Hara with run number one. Jordan singled over second and Shaw romped in with another. Bradley made the putout. Corcoran struck out and Schmidt got a life when Bradley let his grounder go thru his legs.

ed the plate. This ended Baltimore's little lot.

After getting the first two men out in Toronto's first Vickers passed Shaw and deliberately walked Jordan, but Bradley showed him his mistake by tripping to right, scoring Shaw and Jordan. Kocher went out, pitcher to first.

The Leafs were unable to score again until the seventh, when, after Vaughn got to base on Malsel's boot and Rudolph had forced him at second, Fitz singled to left. O'Hara hit for two bases to right and Rudy scored. Shaw's two-sacker to the same place tallied Fitz and O'Hara. After Jordan was disposed of Bradley tripped to deep centre and Shaw came home. After this the Leafs were unable to get near a run.

Jersey City Double Score
BUFFALO, May 24.—It was kids' day at the baseball park to-day and nearly 500 of the little fellows watched the Bisons get a good trimming in the final game of the series with Jersey City. It was a rich afternoon for hits and they just rolled off the pitchers like water from a duck's back. The feature was the hitting of Dutch Dehinger, he making two triples, two doubles and one single in six times at bat. Score:
