HEARD BECKER MAKE DEATH THREAT
 Maurice Lubau, Denizen of Underworld, Released From Prison to Give Startling Evidence — Identified Two Gunmen Who Fired Shots at Rosenthal.

Need Statistical Experts
 OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—In view of the tremendous mass of statistics submitted by the railway companies at the recent sittings on the western freight rate enquiry, and the somewhat formidable task with which counsel for the Dominion and provinces are confronted in sifting and weighing the value of such evidence, in the short time allotted to them before Nov. 4, the opinion has been freely expressed in legal circles here that two or more experts in railway statistical work should be secured by the government, regardless of cost, to aid counsel in the work.

VACANT SENATORSHIPS FOR ONTARIO
 OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—There are three vacancies in the senate from Ontario: Wilson (Eglin), Cartwright (Kingston), Sullivan (Kingston). There are 24 seats from the province. Of the 211 in 4 live west of Toronto, 6 in Toronto (all Liberals). 11 east of Toronto. The members of the lower house who have claims for promotion to the red chamber are Broder (Dundas), Crothers (Eglin), Sproule (Grey), Henderson (Hull), Baker (Hamilton), Beattie (London). Because of the overweight from the east only one at most is likely to go to that end. Mr. Broder therefore has a good chance. Crothers and Sproule of the western M. P.'s look best. But Mr. Dingman of Stratford is pressed by many newspapers and others for a vacancy. And there are the defeated candidates and the old friends' list: Mr. McCall of Simcoe is one of the former. And there must be a lot of aspirants from Toronto, where there are six Liberals and not one Conservative!

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FORGERY
 Mrs. Isabella Harley, a young woman refused to give her address to the police other than that her home is in Toronto, was arrested by Detective Newton yesterday charged with uttering forged documents. It is claimed that she tried to pass a cheque for $700 on the Imperial Bank with the signature of James McBride, a local lawyer, endorsing it. The money was to be paid to a fictitious character by the name of James G. Cooke.

MINISTERS GOT CERTIFICATES
 A meeting of unusual interest took place at Broadway Tabernacle last night when 290 local preachers attached to the Methodist Church in Toronto were presented with certificates of authorization by the Rev. Joe Ferguson, who acted for the Rev. Mr. Locke, president of Toronto Conference, Rev. Dr. Carman, Dr. W. H. Hincks, Dr. R. J. Trevelyan and Mr. Justice MacLaren accompanied the president and addressed the gathering.

BAPTISTS WILL ERECT A NEW BUILDING

Site is Purchased on Church Street, Near Wilton Avenue, and Modern Publishing House Will Be Built—Plans for New McMaster University Will Soon Be Considered

Toronto Baptists are about to build a publishing house on Church street for their newspaper and other literature. A suitable site has just been purchased in Church street, south of Wilton avenue. The money for the office has been provided by prominent Toronto Baptists. The project will be formally announced at the annual convention at Stratford next week.

New McMaster Plans.
 The plans for the new McMaster University buildings will also be placed before the convention.

According to the leaders of the denomination, a new era has dawned for the Baptists of Canada, who are, they believe, destined to take a much more influential position in the religious life of the Dominion than in the past.

The annual convention will open at Stratford on Wednesday, October 16, in the Park Baptist Church. Toronto will be prominently represented on the program.

MURDER WITNESS FEARS FOR LIFE

LONDON, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—Thomas Coupe, the eye-witness of the Rosenthal murder, is expected to sail for New York tomorrow on board the Mauretania in the company of Assistant District Attorney William DeFord. Coupe returned to his home in England with the intention of joining Mr. DeFord at Liverpool tomorrow. He makes no secret of the fact that he considers his return to New York a very dangerous undertaking.

According to his agreement with the district attorney Coupe returns to New York with his expenses paid and his life insured for $10,000. The state will bear the cost.

Maurice Lubau, Denizen of Underworld, Released From Prison to Give Startling Evidence — Identified Two Gunmen Who Fired Shots at Rosenthal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—The first testimony implicating Charles Becker in the murder of Herman Rosenthal was given at today's session of the trial of the former police officer accused of instigating the murder of the gambler. It was testified by Maurice Lubau, a hanger-on of the underworld, that Becker had said to Jack Rose about three weeks before the murder:

"If that Rosenthal is not croaked, I will croak him myself."

Lubau, who was also an eye-witness of the murder, identified in court today "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" as two of the men who fired the shots that killed Rosenthal and William Shapiro as the driver of the murder car. Gyp and Lefty, he had known for more than a year, he said, and he also swore that "Dago" Frank, likewise an acquaintance, was in the group when the shots were fired. The witness also knew Rosenthal. He proved to be such a star witness for the state that John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defendant, spent two hours and a half trying to break down his testimony.

Released From Jail.
 Lubau was only discovered by District Attorney Whitman a day or two ago, with his brother Jacob, in jail in Newark, N.J., on a forgery charge. The brothers claimed to have been "framed up" by somebody. The New York authorities secured their release on parole, and, according to Maurice, the witness, promised to "help them in every way if they would prove their frame-up."

Lubau said that he heard Becker utter his alleged death threat against Rosenthal in the steam room of the Lafayette Baths, and that he stood within two or three feet of the police officer at the time. He did not know Becker well, he conceded, but had seen him in a gambling house on Allen street. Lubau added that Becker was talking at the time with "Denny Sly Fox," an underworld character, who is expected to be a witness in the trial.

Giovanni Stanich, another eye-witness, had previously identified "Whitey" Lewis as one who fired at Rosenthal. Thomas Ryan, a chauffeur, disappointed the prosecutor by refusing in a frightened manner to identify any of them, although he too had seen the murder.

CHIEF JUSTICE SIR CHAS. MOSS OF ONTARIO COURT OF APPEAL DIED LAST NIGHT IN TORONTO

Brilliant Law Scholar and Renowned Judge Passed Away After a Prolonged Illness From Stomach Trouble—Was Vice-Chancellor of Toronto University—He Will Be Buried on Monday.

Sir Charles Moss, LL.D., chief justice of Ontario, passed away at his residence, 547 Jarvis street, late last night. He was in his 73rd year.

The late judge had been considerably indisposed since last January, and under the circumstances could not take his seat in the court of appeal, which sat in the newly-constructed wing of Osgoode Hall. He departed for an extended tour thru England and Ireland last June, where he stayed during the summer months, but the trip was not productive of any appreciable results. Since his return, about a month ago, he had been confined to his bed, where, during the past two or three days, he had suffered a relapse, but the end came suddenly, as he was expected to recover. His medical attendants attribute his death as due to stomach failure, brought on by acute indigestion.

A BRILLIANT STUDENT.
 The late Sir Charles was born in Cobourg in 1840, and came to Toronto early in life, subsequently graduating from the university here. He was a brilliant law student, and held the Law Society's scholarships in 1865, '66, '67 and '68, being called to the bar in 1869. He was lecturer and examiner to the Law Society of Upper Canada from 1872 to 1879; was appointed a bench of the Law Society in 1880, which he retained until 1897, and became a Queen's counsel in 1881.

SUCCEEDED JUDGE ARMOUR.
 In 1881 he was elected president of the York Law Association, which post he held until 1892, being appointed a justice of the court of appeal in Ontario in 1897, and became chief justice five years later, succeeding the late Chief Justice Armour. The University of Toronto conferred the degree of LL.D. upon the late chief justice in 1900, and he was vice-chancellor of the university from 1900 to 1906. He was appointed to the university senate the same year.

Before taking his seat on the bench, he was for many years in partnership with the present Chief Justice Falconbridge and Sir Alan Aylesworth and the late Walter Barwick, K.C., as head of the firm of Moss, Falconbridge & Hoyle.

In 1871 he married Emily, the second daughter of the late Hon. Robert Baldwin Sullivan, judge of the Queen's Bench Court, who now survives her husband. Three sons—Charles A., George F. and Thomas—and two daughters—Mrs. W. E. Davidson and Miss Adelaide Moss—all reside in Toronto, also survive.

The funeral will take place next Monday afternoon from his late residence to St. James' Cemetery.

HALL DIED THRU BLOW STRUCK BY MATE

Jury Under Dr. Hopkins Showed Its Disapproval of the Medical Attention at House of Providence Received by Victim, and Censured Sister and Doctor in Charge.

"We find that Charles Hall came to his death on October 5, 1912, as a result of a blow struck by Arthur MacDonald at the House of Providence on the afternoon of October 5, 1912. We also consider it was the duty of the sister in charge to have called a doctor again, and we more especially censure the doctor for not giving the deceased more attention." By the above verdict, Coroner Dr. Hopkins' jury, investigating the death of Charles Hall at the House of Providence, showed its disapproval of the medical attention the victim received after he was assaulted by Arthur MacDonald.

Evidence was adduced showing that MacDonald was a frequent visitor at the institution. He also was a cripple. After the assault Hall was carried to the infirmary and Dr. C. J. Copp diagnosed the case as concussion of the brain. This was about 2:30 and the old man was hurt about 11.

That was the last time the doctor saw Hall alive. He died on Saturday morning.

Three sisters from the House of Providence did not think it was their duty to interfere with the doctor's work. As a matter of fact, had they known the condition of the patient to be so serious they would have had the house doctor attend him. In spite of this testimony, the jury found the sister in charge also.

MacDonald is still in jail on a charge of manslaughter.

SPREAD OF WAR MAY YET BE CHECKED

Continued Inaction of Balkan States Gives Rise to Hope That Warnings of Powers Are Heeded — No Further News of Frontier Fighting Has Reached London.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—No news was received in London to-night concerning the operations of Montenegro in the direction of the Turkish town of Scutari or of hostilities on any of the other Balkan frontiers. The legations of the Balkan states in London were without any advice either of a military or diplomatic nature.

The continued delay by the states other than Montenegro in declaring war has revived hopes in diplomatic quarters here that a general war in the Balkans may yet be averted. It is said that a much more hopeful view of the situation prevailed in the British foreign office to-night. No tangible reason was assigned for this optimism, but it seems to have been based on the idea that the warnings of the powers may have caused the Balkan states to pause. The Bulgarian Government today denied Turkish reports of fighting on the Three-Bulgarian frontier.

AUSTRIA IS READY.
 VIENNA, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—That Austria-Hungary is making military preparations in anticipation that the Balkan conflict may involve the larger powers was indicated today by the reply of the minister of finance to the Hungarian delegation to a criticism by Socialists that the extraordinary military credits requested by the government implied warlike designs. While protesting that the government's policy was a most pacific one, the minister of finance said:

"We are of the opinion that internal deliberations regarding the consequences of a war in the Balkans may ensue, and in that case we probably would make our voice heard more successfully if we were well armed."

PORTE WILL BOW TO POWERS.
 CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—The Porte is not expected to reply to the demands of the powers concerning the trouble in the Balkans before Sunday. It is believed this reply will acquiesce in the views of the powers and accept their offer to submit a program of proposed reforms in Macedonia. It is presumed, however, that the Porte is not unwilling to gain time by prolonging the discussion, knowing that each day gained means so much added to Turkey's strength.

The local newspapers in their articles today hint that attempts have been made by Turkey to separate Greece from the quartette of Balkan states now vying upon war with Turkey by offering Greece special advantages, but that the Hellenic Government turned a deaf ear to the proposals.

IN MACDONALD TODAY.
 The election in Macdonald (Manitoba) today turns mainly on reciprocity. Mr. Richardson (Lib.-Ind.) made it so and Hon. Mr. Rogers and all the government's friends joined issue with him. Secondary issues are the school question, C.P.R. million, Mr. Richardson's record. Three-fourths of the voters are farmers, the rest residents of Winnipeg.

TOOK PARIS GREEN.
 Ernest Carpenter of Parry Sound is in a dangerous condition at Grace Hospital and his recovery is doubtful. Carpenter swallowed about two ounces of Paris green yesterday morning near the foot of John street. He is about 25 years old.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.
 OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—The date for the meeting of parliament will be fixed on Monday. This statement was given out by Premier Borden following today's meeting of the cabinet.

SHOT SON WHILE ON COON HUNT

Walter Woods, Farmer, of North Crosby, Tripped, and Gun Was Discharged.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—News has reached here of a fatal accident which occurred in the Township of North Crosby, near Westport, when Walter Woods, a farmer, accidentally shot his son, a lad of fifteen years, with whom he was coon hunting, a short distance from their home.

They came across a coon and tried to kill it. The father had loaded his weapon and was about to fire. Just then the coon moved from one limb to another necessitating the father changing his position. As he was doing so he tripped and fell, the gun discharging, and the boy fell, shot thru the back. The father carried the boy to the house and summoned a doctor, but death ensued in twelve hours.

Woods had been a hunter and trapper all his life and this is his first accident.

BEAT INEBRIATES SAYS FATHER MINEHAN

A Good, Honest Castigation Best Remedy for Men Who Are Partially Enslaved, and Prison Farm for Advanced Cases — Reclamation of Fallen Women.

(By Kenneth Douglas.)

MONTREAL, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—At this evening's session of the conference of charities and correction, delinquents, including women offenders and inebriates, were discussed.

Rev. Arthur French of Montreal said that upon the preservation of civility depends the well-being of society in all its complex relations.

To restore a fallen woman, self-respect must be recreated in her. The woman who wants money from an honest hand for an honest need must always have it, was one of the statements of Mr. French. Mercy and help are never to be refused. Philanthropy must be unbounded and there must be severity with judgment on the part of the magistrate, because this often leads to reformation where leniency would fail. Women are often most helpful in the treatment of women offenders. Classification of women offenders was strongly urged.

Should Thrash Drinkers.
 Rev. Father Minehan of Toronto defined the inebriate as one who had become more or less enslaved by intoxicating liquor, the man who could not keep his job, and the special feature he proposed as a remedy was a thorough beating for the offence. This might be regarded as a piece of humor, but he spoke in all seriousness, and in his view he had the support of authoritative medical experience.

For more advanced stages the inebriate farm, where by hard work and an indeterminate sentence, the drunkard might be taught discipline and the duty of supporting his family, was advocated. The endeavor of science to eradicate the traces of alcohol from the blood must be assisted by religion and hard work, for the inebriate is often the victim of moral depravity and of an exaggerated egotism, both of which must get rid of.

If we cannot wipe out altogether the manufacture of the stuff that makes inebriates, the methods proposed should be adopted.

The chairman, Hon. Recorder R. S. Wells of Montreal, who presided, in the day of support of his family, was advised. The subjects treated during the evening.

"The Pink Lady" Business is Big. Manager Sheppard reports the business of the musical comedy "The Pink Lady," which is at the Princess this week, exceedingly big. The engagement concludes with a matinee this afternoon and tonight's performance.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Mrs. Isabella Harley, a young woman refused to give her address to the police other than that her home is in Toronto, was arrested by Detective Newton yesterday charged with uttering forged documents. It is claimed that she tried to pass a cheque for $700 on the Imperial Bank with the signature of James McBride, a local lawyer, endorsing it. The money was to be paid to a fictitious character by the name of James G. Cooke.

The woman yesterday afternoon rang for a messenger boy at Harbor street and Spadina avenue and directed him to take the cheque to the head office at the Imperial Bank and there have it marked. The teller found that the signature did not tally with that of the real Mr. McBride, so the police were notified. Detective Newton accompanied the messenger back to Harbor street, where the woman was awaiting. The boy's return, and placed her under arrest. She is described as being exceedingly attractive of an attractive appearance and about 27 years old.

M'GILL MEN FIGHT POLICE

Spectator Seriously Hurt by Flying Brick — Many Students Arrested for Rioting.

MONTREAL, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—One man suffering from concussion of the brain in the Royal Victoria Hospital, six youths arrested, many cuts and bruises and many police uniforms badly in need of cleaning was the result of a mix up between the students of McGill University and the police this evening.

Thomas Marsh, 62 years of age, while walking home along Sherbrooke street, was struck on the head by a flying stone and knocked unconscious to the sidewalk. He was conveyed to the Royal Victoria Hospital, where it was stated that the doctors suspected concussion of the brain.

The first trouble occurred at about half past 8 o'clock, after the conclusion of the annual sports, held on the grounds of the M.A.A.A. at the corner of Comely and St. Catherine streets, where the students commenced their old practice of holding up the street cars by pulling off the trolley poles. A. Dawes, a student, was placed under arrest, and this was the signal for an uproar. The student was taken to the police station, and the students made a strenuous effort to get into the building, but the police formed a cordon and kept them away.

A Serious Clash.
 There was a running fight between the students and the police on St. Catherine street eastward. The police, reinforced, patrolled the route to see that no damage was done and they were pelted with rotten eggs by the students.

All street car and vehicular traffic was held up on McGill College avenue. At the corner of Burnside place the second battle occurred, when stones were thrown and five other arrests made.

A huge crowd had gathered on McGill College avenue and it was into these that the students allege a patrol wagon laden with reserves was driven at full speed, knocking two of the students down. While it was stated that they were injured, none of the local hospitals reported receiving them for treatment.

LIBERALS ALLEGE PURPOSE IS TO INTIMIDATE RICHARDSON'S WORKERS—FINAL STRENUOUS APPEALS

WINNIPEG, Oct. 11.—(Can. Press.)—The arrest of two more Liberal workers by the provincial police today was the feature of the windup of the Macdonald campaign and added fuel to the bitter controversy now raging as to whether these arrests are justified, or are merely to intimidate the opposition candidate's organization. The arrests were made at Cardinal, in the French-Canadian district of Macdonald riding. R. J. A. Prince, one of the men arrested, is a Winnipeg law student, whose parents are respectable French-Canadians, living across the river at St. Boniface. He is charged with having given a voter ten dollars.

An evening paper says that Frank Tardotte, now of Winnipeg, is the same man who ran in the Conservative list against Turgeon in Duck Lake at the recent Saskatchewan general elections.

R. L. Richardson, the opposition candidate, comes out with a final appeal to the electors in which he says that his victory will be the definite formulation by the west of a demand for a square deal in terms which the Dominion Government will be obliged to respect. He appeals from the "Coast-Government in the Province of Manitoba to the integrity and intrepidity of the unurchinable citizens of Macdonald."

Roblin's Warning.
 On the other hand Sir Rodmond Roblin warns the electors against the "hordes of hoodlars and brabbers from Saskatchewan sent to Macdonald by the Saskatchewan Government to sway by illegal means its foreign vote." Attorney-General Cross of Alberta is quoted by The Tribune in rebuttal as saying that a prominent member of the Edmonton Liberal Association endorsed his own view that there are no crooks in Macdonald from Alberta.

The Telegram, after saying that reciprocity is a dead issue, and the record of the Borden government fine, concludes that there is no national purpose to be served, no principle to be vindicated, nothing save the personal ambitions of a ruined group of politicians.
