Time to Retire Your Lighter Suits

It will be all the fresher for wearing when days get warm again, and in the meantime you will get much use and satisfaction from a suit bought at Simpson's. The clothing shown in our Men's Store is selected carefully for excellence of materials, cut and hang, finish and moderate price. "Moderate" in this connection has distinct reference to quality, the better grades being just as reasonable in price as are the less expensive. Simpson's Suits are good suits at every price—the value is there.
