ONLY GALLANTRY, SAYS EMMERSON, EXPLAINING IN COURT THE MONTREAL INCIDENT PORTER SWEARS HE WAS WARNED

PROSECUTION TRIES HARD TO KEEP EVIDENCE LIMITED

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 30.—(Special.)—To-day has been replete with surprises and rich in dramatic incidents in the Emmerston charges of criminal libel against the editor of The Gleaner.

It was a puzzle last night why the prosecution was so unwilling to complete its case. Rumors were rife of compromise and surrender, and the defence could hardly imagine what today's session might bring forth. It brought forth a surprise that made everyone sit up, and, incidentally, the crowded courtroom warmed up to Mr. Emmerston when he boldly took the stand and prepared to give his own version of the notorious Sunday night at St. Lawrence Hall.

Neither side was quite prepared to rest its case at 6 o'clock to-night, and there was an informal understanding that either side might offer testimony to-morrow. It is decided, however, that the case shall not be continued further until next Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

It is possible that the magistrate may find over Mr. Emmerston, but no one seriously believes that the trial will ever come off.

Just now the issue narrows to a point of veracity between Mr. Emmerston and Harry Dean, once nightwatchman at the St. Lawrence Hall.

The facts are so nearly agreed upon that judgment in the case must depend only upon the inference to be drawn. Indeed, the case, if submitted to a jury, will be largely decided upon Mr. Emmerston's testimony.

How It Happened.

Briefly, his testimony was that he had a humble friend and constant, a baggage-master on the I.C.R., at Moncton, named Geo. C. Allen. Allen's wife was known to Mr. Emmerston, thru his late father-in-law. The Allens are respectable people, but hardly in the 400. Mr. and Mrs. Allen attended some public meeting at Moncton on June 4 last, which was addressed by Mr. Emmerston. They lingered at its conclusion, and, gaining access to the minister, asked him to show Mrs. Allen to ride in his private car from Moncton to Montreal. Mr. Emmerston could not promise, but told them to be at the station when he passed through Moncton a few days later on his return from Acadia College commencement.

Three nights later, the minister, arriving at Moncton, called on the Allens at the station, and, having a vacant stateroom, invited Mrs. Allen on board. It was, he points out, a small train, and it can be said that Mr. Emmerston is naturally good-natured and democratic.

"I had had extended the same courtesy to any of you," said the minister, including in a benevolent swing of his arm the entire audience.

On this private car, Mr. Emmerston's mother, sister and daughter. So far, so good. His humble friend took her place on the car. On the following Sunday he returned to Montreal.

"What for?"

"Well, he says, 'I wanted to see a Mr. Peters, who was manager of a foundry company, in which I am interested.'"

By Chance.

Mr. Emmerston did not write, wire or phone Mr. Peters first. He made no appointment; he sent no message; he traveled from Ottawa to Montreal to meet a man who might or might not be there, and who, as a matter of fact, was not in Montreal.

How could Mr. Emmerston do Time hung heavy on his hands. Idly enough he looked over the register at the St. Lawrence Hall, where, he says, he had gone for the first time in sixteen years. Looking over the register, he found the names of Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Beauthner, and Mrs. Beauthner's handwriting may cut some figure in the case hereafter.

Mr. Emmerston did not suspect that these ladies were still in Montreal, and he went up to their room at once to call upon them. The three went to the Oxford, a rather gay cafe, and returned to the hotel at 10:30 o'clock.

What followed is a matter of dispute. The two ladies were found in Mr. Emmerston's apartment, and the nightwatchman claims that they were noisy, and that they were ordered to be more quiet or to leave the hotel. That they did leave the hotel is not disputed.

Mrs. Beauthner paid the bill for the three of them.

They went in a body to a rather obscure hotel called the Albion. The register of the Albion has been photographed, and this photograph was obtained.

HIGHER AND LOWER.

The men's straw hat will be a little higher in the crown this year. The fact is announced on the authority of Mr. Dineen, who cheerfully remarks that there are mighty few straw hats to be seen just yet, though there should be, as the June weather is coming, and Dineen's, at Yonge and Temperance streets, have some stylish favorites. They are higher in shape, but lower in price.

The popular hat now worn is a Dineen Special Black Derby at $2.50. There is nothing natter to suit all freaks of the weather man.

Italian Convicted On Murder Charge

Frank Capelli in Shadow of Gallows at Parry Sound—Companion Marano Escapes.

PARRY SOUND, May 30.—(Special.)—The trial of the two Italians, Capelle and Marano, accused of the murder of Daw on Christmas Day, as the result of a drunken row, was brought to a close to-day.

A verdict of guilty was brought in against Capelle, while his companion, Marano, was acquitted.

All the evidence was put in yesterday, and the proceedings opened this morning by the address of Mr. Keefer for the defence.

He spoke for one hour and devoted most of his remarks toward the defence of Marano.

Mr. Blackstock, K.C., the prosecuting attorney, followed, speaking for upward of an hour and a half. His address was a masterly effort, and at times it was very dramatic. His description of the tracing of the movements of the prisoners together from the time of their arrest to the commencement of the row, being a word picture.

Judge Teetzel's charge to the jury lasted upward of an hour and was considered very fair toward the prisoners.

At about 1:30 the case was given to the jury, and after deliberation of four hours the verdict was reached.

Sentence will not be passed until the close of the term, as the two accused are to be kept in custody here two more charges against them, on which they will be tried during the present term.

COMPANY HASN'T SHOWN PURCHASES REASONABLE

So Says Mr. Shepley, Neither
Are Rates Proven Satisfactory.

MONTREAL, May 30.—(Special.)—During the Bell enquiry this morning, after one witness had been examined, Mr. Laframboise announced that, with the exception of a few brief statements that could be filed later, the company's case was practically closed.

They had thought of giving comparisons of the rates charged here and those charged in various cities in the United States, but as such figures were very misleading unless the actual conditions in each locality were gone into, he did not think it worth while at this stage to put the evidence in.

Mr. Shepley expressed grave doubts as to whether the company had proven that they were not charging unreasonable rates, and also expressed the opinion that he would be obliged to call for the statements of the subsidiary companies, as he did not think that the evidence thus far presented had ad-duced showed conclusively that the prices charged by these companies were not unreasonable.

This afternoon Mr. C. E. Ehtler appeared on behalf of the city and submitted for the attention of the board the evidence and arguments adduced on behalf of the City of Montreal before the select committee on telephones at Ottawa, with regard to the complaints of citizens against the Nickle-in-the-Shoe telephones, which were considered to be an illegal method of increasing rates.

Mr. D. L. Hall said that the Union of Canadian Municipalities considered its responsibilities fulfilled when it had communicated its views to Mr. Shepley.

The crown counsel then suggested that as the whole case was cast upon him, an adjournment should be taken, in order that the evidence up to date might be prepared and digested.

C. F. Sise, president of the Bell Telephone Co., produced a statement showing that since 1898 the company had received from the sale of capital stock, with premiums of various issues, and upon the sale or negotiation of bonds, the sum of $10,722,920. During the same period, 1898-1906, the capital expenditure was $11,152,333.

ANXIOUS FOR LAND.

Many Looking for the Doukhobor Homesteads.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., May 30.—(Special.)—Already the hotels and nearly all available quarters are filled by early arrivals anxious to file on the Doukhobor homesteads, which will be thrown open for settlement on Saturday and all next week.

Last night's arrivals had a scramble to secure quarters and there was no place left for the people who came to-night. There promises to be over a thousand people in line on Saturday.

The local land office officials anticipate trouble, and to avoid crowding and preserve order have secured the services of a detachment of mounted police.

INFLUENCE WITH HANNA TO GET COBALT LICENSE

Detectives Cause Arrest of Two Men Who Asked $3000 For Campaign Fund.

The provincial detectives have unearthed what they believe to be the beginning of a gigantic swindle in the sale of bogus liquor licenses in Cobalt. Two men were arrested Monday. A man called Enright was taken into custody by Chief Constable of Cobalt, and another, Duncan Davidson, of Ottawa, was arrested there, charged with conspiracy to defraud.

It is alleged that these men went to Cobalt and undertook in at least one instance to procure a liquor license for a Cobalt man in consideration of $3000, which should go to the provincial government's campaign fund.

They are said to have represented themselves as the fountain-head of influence, and to be able to produce licenses at the given figure.

Davison is being sent to Cobalt, and the twin will appear there before Police Magistrate Brown Saturday morning for a hearing.

Crown Attorney Corley will go to Cobalt to-night to prosecute the men. Asked about the matter, Mr. Corley was uncommunicative. All he would say was that he is going to Cobalt to-night, and Mr. Eric Armour will take his place in the police court.

CAMPAIGN IN WEST YORK.

Suddenness of the Election is Hardly Appreciated by the Electorate.

Canvassers in the West York campaign report a surprising lack of knowledge among electors that a contest is imminent in this riding.

The speed with which the vacancy in the local office is being filled is believed to be mainly responsible for this, as it has allowed little time for public meetings. The election takes place to-morrow (Saturday). The riding comprises Etobicoke and Vaughan and York Township west of Yonge-street, the Town of Toronto Junction and the villages of Weston and Woodbridge.

The candidates are Dr. Godfrey, Conservative; Eaten Williams, Independent, and F. J. Peel, Socialist.

And Sir Anthony McDonnell Will

LONDON, May 30.—Differences between the governor and Sir Anthony McDonnell, which threatened to end in the retirement of the latter from the post of under-secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, were apparently at least temporarily smoothed over at yesterday's cabinet meeting.

ACCUSED EACH OTHER.

Two Prisoners Make Admissions in Jail.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Two prisoners in the jail at Long Island City to-day denounced each other as the murderer of 15-year-old Annie Luck of Corona, who was assaulted and stabbed to death while gathering dandelions near her father's farm in Elmhurst last week.

The men were Henry Becker, who twice confessed to the crime, and subsequently repudiated his confessions; and Yeon Graham, who was arrested yesterday within a mile of the scene of the murder for attempted assault upon 5-year-old Mammie Luck of Corona.

Nation Must Continue Its Policy To Control the Use of Wealth In Business By the Corporations

Roosevelt Comes Out Flatly for Positive Restraint Upon Railways to Best Serve the Public Interest.

MUST BE NO STOCK JOBBING BUT AIM TO GIVE SERVICE

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—"I emphatically believe that positive restraint should be imposed upon railway corporations, and that they should be required to meet positive obligations in the interest of the general public."

"I no less emphatically believe that in thus regulating and controlling the affairs of the railways it is necessary to recognize the need of an immense outlay of money from private sources, and the certainty that this will not be met without the assurance of sufficient reward to induce the necessary investment."

"It is plainly inadvisable for the government to undertake to direct the physical operation of the railways, save in wholly exceptional cases; and the supervision and control it exercises should be both entirely adequate to secure its ends, and yet no more harassing than is necessary to secure these ends."

Such was the conclusion of a notable address by President Roosevelt to-day at the laying of the corner-stone of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church to-day, a temporary flooring collapsed, precipitating about 60 persons into the cellar, 12 feet below.

For over an hour the utmost excitement prevailed. The screams of those in the wreckage and the groans from the injured could be heard for a block away. Ladders were obtained from neighboring factories, and with the aid of the police the injured were removed from their perilous position. Some were able to walk to their homes. Others were removed to hospitals in ambulances.

The accident, it is said, was due to insufficient bracing beneath the new floor.

Bishop Hoban of Scranton, who went down with the wreckage, was at first reported to be seriously hurt. He was soon rescued by friends and removed to a place of safety. He was badly shaken up, but escaped injury.

Roosevelt on Railways.

The power of the nation must be exercised to stop crimes of cunning no less than crimes of violence.

There can be no halt in the course we have deliberately elected to pursue, the policy of asserting the right of the nation so far as it has the power to supervise and control the business use of wealth, especially in its corporate form.

There must be vested in the federal government a full power of supervision and control over the railways doing an interstate business, a power in many respects analogous to that exercised over national banks, such supervision to include the frank publicity of everything which would be investors' and the public at large have a right to know.

The federal government will thus be able to prevent all overcapitalization in the future.

It should be declared contrary to public policy henceforth to allow railroads to devote their capital to anything but the transportation business, certainly not to the hazards of speculation. For the very reason that we desire to favor the honest railroad manager, we should seek to discourage the activities of the man whose only concern with railroads is to manipulate their stocks.

I emphatically believe that positive restraint should be imposed upon railway corporations and that they should be required to meet positive obligations in the interest of the general public.

SIXTY FALL IN CELLAR AT A CHURCH SERVICE

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., May 30.—At the laying of the corner-stone of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church to-day, a temporary flooring collapsed, precipitating about 60 persons into the cellar, 12 feet below.

SAYS HE SET FIRE TO STAND AT EXHIBITION

Young Polander Under Arrest at Guelph Says
He and Pal Named
Wallace Were Responsible.

Declaring that he laid the fire that burned the grand stand at the exhibition grounds last fall, a Pole, Louis Sybiska by name, and aged about 19 years, is in jail at Guelph.

His arrest was effected by County Constable Mereweather of Guelph, on suspicion that he was implicated in recent burglaries there.

The man had been hanging around Calloway's livery stable for several days, and in conversation with some of the stablemen he let out some information that led to the theory that he had some part in the Toronto incendiarism. When placed in the lock-up he was questioned by the constable and finally confessed. He said he laid the pile and a pal named Wallace set fire to it, starting the conflagration that consumed the grand stand. Wallace is now in the St. Charles.

Sybiska, in his confession, declared that he and Wallace got $50 for the job, but from whom the police are not in a position to say.

The Toronto police are inclined to believe that Sybiska is crazy, but some one from the department will go to Guelph to-day to investigate.

WORST YET TO COME.

Sensational Developments to Be Made by Ottawa Clergyman.

MONTREAL, May 30.—(Special.)—A clergyman high up in the established church, who is as well-known in this city as he is in the city hall, tells a most sensational story as to the intentions of certain sections of the church militant regarding the recent charges that have been made so boldly against several of Canada's public men, and he also declares that steps will be taken to bring other notorious facts to the light of day as soon as Sir Wilfrid Laurier returns from Great Britain.

The reverend gentleman says that certain letters now in the possession of an Ottawa clergyman, which were written to a young lady now deceased, by an ex-minister of the crown, will create a terrible sensation when they are given to the press.

It appears that the Ottawa divine wrote to the eminent politician in question for an explanation and the latter not deigning a reply a second epistle has been sent off.

In fact the minister declares that if no answer is forthcoming immediate action will be taken.

IMPRESSED WITH MINES.

Lemieux Thinks Cobalt Will Be Pro-

OTTAWA, May 30.—(Special.)—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who has just returned from Cobalt, is convinced that the town which is now coming prominently before the people on account of the mining operations will continue to be prosperous and populous even if the silver, nickel, cobalt and other rich silver deposits should become exhausted. The minister forms this opinion from having observed the resources of the Temiscaming district.

Speaking of the mining camp itself, Mr. Lemieux said—"It is undoubtedly the greatest mining camp in the world. I was able to see the shining silver by scraping my feet along the ground."

COW RUNS AMUCK.

Injures Boy and a Girl and Gores a Horse.

Exeter, May 30.—(Special.)—While three hundred children were dispersing from school a cow, being led by a young man, got entangled in the gate to the crowd. It carried one boy for a distance on both horns and threw him to the ground, and then pinned a 12-year-old girl named Wicks to a fence. The horns, however, escaped her body, but she had a leg broken.

A horse was slightly gored before the cow was lassoed.
