Markets, Police and Jail Committee this afternoon City Solicitor Mackelean handed in his opinion regarding the fixing of a rate and the collection of fees on the Central market. Under the Flatt Act, which comes into operation on Jan. 1, the rates for single and double rigs come down some 50 per cent. to 10 and 15 cents respectively. According to the Solicitor's advice the present rates can only be kept up by mencing in the market property, and this course will not be attempted. To neutralize the Flatt Act, however, the city may compel all farmers doing business to come into the market.

A resolution was put through fixing the rental of the McQuesten estate at $150. the verandah facing the market to come down in 30 days.

such concessions from a people who have been talking retailation; such a move on the part of the Canadian au-thorities is almost incredible, as it mili-tates directly against their own inter-tates directly against their own linerests.

That the men of this State are taking advantage of the easy regulation is seen from the fact that 5,750,000 feet of 1028 have arrived during the past few days for the Holland Emery Lumber Company of Tawas, 2,985,200 feet for Edward Hole, and 3,453,556 feet for Alger. Smith & Co., a total of over 12,000,000 feet already here, while the tugs Manistique and Protector are off Thunder Island with a monstrous raft of 67,060 pieces. All this lumber is from Canadian forests, and will be sawn here, giving employment to thousands of Michigan mill hands, where, if the Government of Ontario had not been so thoughtful of our interests, the work might have been done in Ontario mills.

Just What They Expresed. Saginaw, Mich., Sept. 22.—R. A. Loveland, President of the Saginaw Lumber and Satt Company, says the sweeping alien labor and supply clause in the new Ontario Crown Land timber regulations, is the logical result of the $2 duty expected by the $1 men. It means a serious, if not a death, blow to the lumbering interests of the Saginaw Valley. "There is no possible way of retailating. We simply can't take out logs if the order be literally enforced. If a $1 duty had been imposed no such action would have been taken. I guess now people will wish they had a $1 duty."

THE LUETGERT TRIAL pases to Prove That Mrs. Luetgert

Is Not Dead. Ch'cago, Sept. 22.-Judge Vincent sprang a surprise on the prosecution in he Luetgert murder trial in his openthe Luetgert murder trial in his opening statement to-day, by reference to a man named Robert Davey, who, he said, was the original medium through whom all of Luetgert's treuble arose, and whose action resulted in Luetgert being arraigned before the bar of justice to-day, charged with murder. The lawyer claimed that Davey swinded Luetgert out of $25,000, deluding him with vain hopes of swallowing the Armours and Cuhadys, that the loss of this money drove Mrs. Luetgert insane and she wandered away from home, while demented.

Attorney Vincent standed the prosecution by the magnitude of his claims in the last few minutes of the morning session. That Mrs. Luctgert is alive, he session. That Mrs. Luetgert is alive, he said, he would prove by witnesses who have seen her since May 1, and he would also prove that the bones found in the vat were not human, but were put there by the police authorities. As for the rings, claimed to be Mrs. Duetgert's, the attorney said he would show that they were not hers, and that she had never seen them.

The attorney's speech made an impression on those in the court room and there was a more cheerful smile on Luetgert's face as he limped back to jail.

Four Witnesses. During the afternoon four witnesses were heard. The first witness called was ex-Judge A. A. Goodrich. The witness said that on May 3 Luetgert came to his office, and with tears in his eyes informed him that Mrs. Luetgert had disappeared. Queen's Rugby Men at Practice-How the Kingston University Team Will Kingston, Sept. 22.—About a dozen of Queen's footballers turned out yesterday afternoon for the first practice of the season. This may be called a good showing when it is considered that the students have only begin to return. Among the old players were Kennedy, Metcaife, Ross, McCouville and Mohr. J. Elliott of last season's city intermediate team' was also out. He will be found on Queen's wing this season. Sliter was on the campus and may be placed between the poles, replacing Wilson, who will play with Ottawa City team. Slaw of Queen's II. team is one of the eligibles for the senior team this year. Mohr, who played last season with the victorious Granites, will be found with the college team this year. Besides these, therewere four or five colts out in uniform. Baker was expected to return to the city to-day, as was also Curtis. Queen's team is fairly well filled, but is short one scrimmager. The team will be fully as strong this season as last.
