Mrs. E. M. Hill, of Bergen Street, Brooklyn, New York, says of Warner's Safe Cure:

"My father and husband were both physicians, but I suffered for years. It would be impossible for me to describe my troubles in detail, but I believe all women can understand."

"I have been restored and I wish the whole world could hear me proclaim the good tidings of what Warner's Safe Cure has done for me. God bless the makers of Warner's Safe Cure."

BASEBALL.

O Blucher, Blucher Cooper, hear them shout; There's a man on every base, and no one out,

One small run will tie the score, And it looks like two or more; There's a man on every base, and no one out.

Heady Peter heard and granted their desire.
"Cooper, go," he said, "and make the Saints retire."

Cooper nailed them to the spot. Not a single run they got, And that's how he snatched the from the fire.

TRIMMED THE SAINTS. Once again the Cockneys trimmed the Saints, and now they lead the bunch. It wasn't easy this time, though. The score was 4 to 3, but that doesn't tell the story. In the first of the ninth inning St. Thomas had three men on bases and nobody out. Crow was in the box, and unable to connect with the plate. The St. Thomas rooters present had already begun to gloat. At this critical mo-ment Blucher came up in the person of Cooper. Heady Pete Lohman, unheeding derisive shouts from frantic St. Thomas rooters, called Crow in, sent Cooper to the box, and clinched the game in less time than it takes to tell it. Under conditions the most trying possible, Cooper's superb nerve and wonderful ability shone forth as the glare of a calcium light. Tibald flew out to second, Lyons struck out, and Joe Knight drove a grounder to third, which Cope handled easily, touching his bag and finishing the game. Cooper, the darling of fortune, who had been in the game for only a few minutes, was the hero of the day. The only notable play in the first two innings was Mohler's steals of second and third in the first, after being hit by a pitched ball. In the third a char-ity was issued to McConnell. Sievers' accidental safe hit to left sent McConnell to second. He then stole third and scored on Mohler's hit to Rodden, Sievers being forced out at second.

The run in the fifth was assisted by another batsman being hit by a pitched ball, Cope being the lucky run-getter, to which he was helped by McConnell's sacrifice and Sievers' safe hit to right. Kern hit Howells also with a pitched ball in this inning.

The game was won in the seventh by Crow's two-bagger, secured by Lyons' misjudgment of a fly. Howells followed with the longest hit of the Carey... game, also landing safely on second.

Just prior to this Catcher Sullivan dropped an easy foul fly. Mohler hit safe, Howells going to third. Rodden

Breaks the Hearts of the Saints | failed to hold Sullivan's throw, Howells coming in from third on the play. Kern failed to hold a pop fly off Mc-Fadden's bat. Although Kern seemed to be weakening in the seventh he re-covered enough energy to strike out the side in the eighth.

Sievers pitched the first six innings, and it was somewhat of a surprise when Crow went into the box in the TURS. seventh. Sievers had good control in While Guelph Wona Well-Played | the first five, and of the three hits in these innings only one went out of the diamond. He struck out two men in succession in both the second and third; although hit safely three times in the sixth, two of the hits were drop flies Clubs-National League Scores, Turf in center field, one especialy of which should have been covered by Howells. There appeared to be some confusion between Mohler and Howells as to how much territory each is supposed to right field. Tibald's batting was not quite as effective as the score shows. He beat out a slow hit to short, another was secured on a dropped fly, and another on Crow's slip in fielding a slow bunt in front of the plate. Score: LONDON.

Jones retired from the game at the end of the fifth, having suffered from a slight sprain during the practice. Carey replaced Jones, Frank going to

CHATHAM DEFEATED HAMILTON. Hamilton, May 12.-Chatham beat out Hamilton yesterday in the second ball game of the season. The work of the Reds was brilliant, Ziegler at short cutting off three or four hits. The Hamiltons outbatted Chatham, but were not as successful in placing their hits. McCann pitched for the home team, and it was his work that lost the game. He gave three passes in the second, and three in the third, and this, with a couple of hits, resulted in three runs, and gave Chatham a lead which could not be overcome. Score:

SLOAN WON THREE RACES. London, May 11-Tod Sloan finished first on Mr. H. J. King's Florio Rubartino (2 to 1), in the race for the flying handicap of 200 sovereigns, and sovereigns each, at the third day's racing at the Newmarket second spring meeting today. Rose Tree was second and Canadense third. Twelve horses

A selling plate of 200 sovereigns was won by Mr. J. C. Corlett's Arroyo; Workshop was second; Sir R. Waldie Griffith's Kurvenal finished third. Six horses ran.

Mr. Arthur James' colt O'Donovan Rossa won the Bedford two-year-old plate of 800 sovereigns. Sir William Beresford's Democrat finished second; Star of Hanover was third. Twelve horses ran.

The Breeders' Plate of 500 sovereigns was won by Sir R. Waldie Griffith's Ca 1:181/4. Vain Duchess, ridden by Sloan. Tire-some was second, and Papdale was third. Six horses ran. Lord William Beresford's Caiman, ridden by Sloan, finished first in the race for the Payne stakes of 400 soveis and 15 sovereigns Pad II. was second, and Einop was third. Five horses ran.

Tod Sloan's victory on Florio, in the race for the flying handicap, was the most creditable of the day. Florio-Rubattino was one of Mr. H. McCalmont's cast-off lot, having hitherto been a very disappointing animal, but yesterday, after appearing hopelessly beaten, Sloan injected new life into the creature, and Florio dashed up and snatched the race by a head. Vain Duchess was regarded as a sure winner in the contest for the breeders' plate,
