NORTH TOBONTO, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—The by-election, now in progress, is causing infinitely more interest than the ordinary municipal fight. times over. Everywhere you go the all absorbing topic of conversation is with respect to Saturday's contest. Friends of J. W. Brownlow, and they are found all over town, are bubbling over with enthusiasm and optimism concerning their candidate. Mr. Brownlow's well known moderation will, it is argued, it is as a sort of safety valve on the safety balance of the council, while his unfalling courtesy is everywhere recog-

Concerning his opponent, Jas. Pears. Concerning his opponent, Jas. Pears, and not one disparaging word has been or wis likely to be said. "The only trouble with Jim Pears," said a well known northender this morning "is h's unhappy faculty of getting drawn into wrong positions. His support of Councillors

Murphy and Grice in going directly against the expressed wish of the majority of the ratepayers alone will overwhelmingly defeat him. We may not want any sewerage yet, but that is for the town, not Councillors Murphy and Grice to say. I don't go much on the constitution myself, but when we say we want a thing, we want it."
