Duke of Devonshire Promises Active Interest During the War.

CANADA IS PRAISED

New Governor-General Responds to Twenty-Two Addresses.

Representatives of all the leading hodies of rublic opinion in Ontario gathered in the legislative chamber of the Ontario Parliament yesterday to formally welcome to this province the representative of his majesty King George on the occasion of his first official visit to this city. The Duke of Devonshire, the newly appointed governor-general of Canada, was accompanied on this occasion by the Duchess and the Ladies Maud and Planche Cavendish, their daughters. Pre-erainent among the 22 addresses expressive of loyalty presented to his excellency was the following read by Premier Hearst from the government

We do not forget that Her Excel- terms: lency the Duchess of Devonshire is a "Mr. Mayor: special pleasure. It is our hope that your excellency and all the members of your family may enjoy health and happiness during the years of residence in Canada.

"The daily work of your women is not only of material value to the relief of the misery and distress attendant upon the war, but will stand as an everlasting monument of the self-sacrifice and devotion which they and their sisters thruout the empire have shown in this tremendous crisis in our history.

"Your contributions of munitions and money are of the greatest value to the allies and will assist to a marked degree in the successful prasecution of the war. While the duchess and I hope to take an active part in all movements connected with the war, I look forward to the time when victory having been achieved we shall be able to identify ourselves with the development and future prosperity of Canada."

The next address presented was that from the City of Toronto, read by Mayor Church:

May it Please Your Excellency:
The mayor and corporation, on behalf of the citizens of Toronto, gladly cmbrace the opportunity afforded by your first visit to this city as governor-general of the Dominion of Canada, to renew their assurances of devide and fealty to the crown and person of our most gracious King, and to render to your excellency, your gracious consort, the Duchess of Devonshire, and the members of your household, a most hearty welcome.

It is true that on more than one occasion in the past we have had the honor and privilege of expressing to your illustrious predecessors the loyalty and devotion of our people, and the duck and devotion of our people and the duck and devotion of the duck and devotion of the duck and the duck and devotion of the duck and the
