CHARGED WITH ARSON

W. F. Thornton Arrested in Connection With Recent Hartland Fire.

HARTLAND, Sept. 3.—Wording Franklin Thornton was arrested on Saturday afternoon on a charge of setting off or causing to be set the disastrous fire which so nearly destroyed the village of Hartland on July 14. The prisoner was released on $5,000 bail. He gave his own recognition for $2,000 and Deputy Sheriff Foster arrested Dudley Day, his brother-in-law, also provided $2,000 each. It is understood that other arrests will be made.

NOTABLE SOCIAL EVENT

Of a double wedding, of which the Times had a brief notice last week the Ottawa Citizen says:—

"Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Helen Maria Bigelow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Bigelow of Truro, Nova Scotia, to Rev. W. J.
Cox, of Washington, D. C. The event will be of interest to many Ottawans who knew Mr. Cox as chaplain of the second Canadian contingent sent to South Africa. He was particularly well known to the members of 'D' Special Service battery as he accompanied the corps on its famous march of over 600 miles through the Karroo desert where it was sent to assist in the suppression of a rebellion in Cape Colony. The wedding takes place in Truro on September 11th. There will be a double ceremony on the same occasion Sara Hermione Bigelow, sister of Miss Helen Bigelow, will be married to Fred L. Schwartz of Moncton, N. B.
Both weddings will take place in St.
John's church, Truro, N. S."

WEDDINGS

Lingley-Cunningham
(Charlottetown Guardian)

Miss Hattie L. Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cunningham, of Charlottetown was united in marriage last Tuesday evening, to Harry Lingley, St.
John. Rev. R. G. Strathe performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lingley left on Friday for their future home in St. John.

Wison-Wisner

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Ephraim Wisner, in St. Catharines, Ont. last week when Albert Henry Wison of Truro, N. S. was married to Mr.
Wisner's youngest daughter, Edith Gertrude. The bride, who was unattended, wore a becoming dress of white silk colonne with bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Rev. S. S. Bates, pastor of Queen street Baptist church, performed the ceremony. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home on Russell avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Wison left on the evening train for Toronto and other places en route to Truro, their future home. The bride's traveling dress was of navy blue broadcloth, tailor made.

CANADA AND WEST INDIES

Notable Speech in Toronto
Last Week by Sir Daniel Morris.

Addressing the manufacturers at a luncheon at the Toronto fair last week, Sir Daniel Morris, to whom the West Indies owe so much of their recent agricultural development, was the guest of honor. He said in part:

"The British West Indies are amongst the oldest in the British Empire. In former days they produced enormous wealth, and much blood and treasure were expended in battles by land and sea in acquiring them from their Spanish, French and Dutch masters. Their chief productions before the emancipation of the slaves were sugar, rum, molasses, cocoa and coffee. During the last sixty years, that is since emancipation, they have experienced varying fortunes, but on the whole there are now indications of brighter days with general progress in all branches of industry. In such progress Canada is capable of contributing a large share, and I believe, to her own material advantage."

TRADE WITH CANADA.

"The total trade of the British West Indies, including British Guiana, is of the annual value of about $60,000,000. Of this, so far, the trade between the Dominion of Canada and the West Indies is of the annual value of $11,000,000, or a little over one-sixth of the whole. These figures show the great possibilities that exist for increasing the trade relations between the two colonies. The actual figures are as follows:

"The value of Canadian imports into the British West Indies amounted, in the year ended June 30, 1906, to $3,246,075, while the value of the West Indian exports shipped to Canada was $2,282,282.
The total volume of the trade carried on between the two countries last year was therefore $5,528,357."

"In the year 1905-06 British Guiana exported to Canada produce, mostly sugar, to the value of $3,250,000, while the imports of Canadian goods were of the value of $885,000. The Leeward Islands exported, during the same year, to British North America $1,220,000 worth of produce, the imports being valued at $135,000. From Barbados sugar to the value of $835,000, and molasses to the value of $460,000 were sent to Canada, and imports of the value of $303,000 received. The value of the imports from Canada into Jamaica was $722, 000, or 6.1 per cent. of the total imports, and the exports were 6.1 per cent. of the total exports. Trinidad in 1906-7 sent exports to the value of $1,121,133 to British North America, and received imports of the value of $603,000."

GREAT DEVELOPMENT POSSIBLE.

"It may be seen from these figures that although a considerable trade is already carried on between Canada and the West Indies, it is hoped that the recent visit of Canadian Trade delegates to ascertain in what respects business relations between these portions of the British Empire were capable of being more fully developed, together with the samples of products now sent to this exhibition, may be the means of still further extending this trade by placing the varied and valuable products of the West Indies, as well as reliable information with respect to them, before the Canadian public."

"As is well known, the Dominion government offers a reduction of customs duties for produce grown in the British colonies, and on this and other grounds it is desirable that closer commercial relations should be established between the West Indies and Canada. The exports from the West Indies to Canada are chiefly sugar and its products, while their imports from Canada consist mainly of breadstuffs, fish and provisions. The trade already built up, largely by means of sloops, schooners and small steamships, is considerable; but there is abundant room for expansion, especially in regard to shipments of sugar, molasses, cocoa, coffee, fresh fruits, spices and other tropical produce."
