

JOSEPH M. LAWSON.

JAMES A. WILSON.

LAWSON & WILSON

Account Book Manufacturers

Stationers, Bookbinders and Paper Rulers

44 and 46 LOMBARD STREET, TORONTO

We have one of the best equipped BOOK BINDERIES in Canada, and our facilities for binding Art Publications, Magazines, Law Books Libraries, etc., Manufacturing Blank Books and Ruling of every description cannot be excelled, while our prices compare favorably with those of any establishment in the Dominion.

We also manufacture all Odd-Sized Envelopes, and supply Envelopes of every kind.

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF EVERY JOB

We take this opportunity of thanking our friends and the public generally for past favors, and solicit a continuance of same.

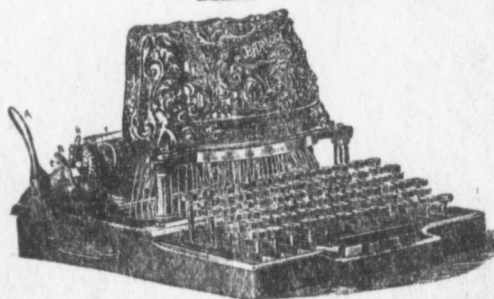

We remain, obediently yours,

Telephone 2406

LAWSON & WILSON

Perfection Attained

ALL OTHERS ANTIQUATED

BAR-LOCK TYPEWRITER

Secures visible writing, permanent alignment, automatic paper feed and ribbon reverse, great speed and manifold power, with easy manipulation and control of machine. Unprecedented sale in England. Thoroughly tested and is bound to replace all others.

I. E. CROSS, General Agent for Canada,
Central Chambers, Ottawa, Ont.

College of Shorthand and Typewriting

Qualifies young men and young ladies for the duties of shorthand clerks and verbatim reporters. Practical instruction by experienced teachers. Competent stenographers and typists furnished permanently or otherwise.

I. E. CROSS, Principal, Ottawa.

A. M. Colquhoun, { Agent for Toronto and Western Ontario } 71 Adelaide Street East