Gardner A Lezes They Are to Be Spect in Propaganda in Congressional Districts

Washington, Sept. 12.—A demand for an investigation of the alleged activities of pro-German propagandists in the congressional districts of Massachusetts was made in a resolution introduced in the house by Representative Augustus O. Gardner, a Massachusetts Republican.

The resolution reads: "Resolved, that the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to make a full and complete investigation concerning the activities of the American Commerce and Protective Committee of the American Embargo Conference, and of such other similar organizations as may be designated by the House of Representatives with a view to ascertaining the sources of their funds, the object of their activities, whether or not their activities have violated the neutrality laws of the United States, the names of senators and members of the House of Representatives who have assisted or opposed, and whether or not they have violated the Corrupt Practices Acts of the United States or of any state of the Union."

In introducing this resolution, Mr. Gardner said: "The various pro-German political committees have different names, but my resolution of investigation will cover any one of them which participates in elections in violation of the Corrupt Practices Act."

"It is commonly understood that one of the pro-German organizations has a large fund in Massachusetts, which it intends to use in four congressional districts. I shall not press this resolution until congress meets in December."

Grape-Nuts Gets Attention

First, because of its wonderfully delicious flavor— Then again, because it is ready to eat—fresh and crisp from the package.

But the big "get attention" quality is its abundance of well-balanced, easily digestible nourishment.

For sound health, every table should have its daily ration of Grape-Nuts—

FORMERLY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, DR. D. HENNESSY IS DEAD Dr. Daniel Hennessy, of Bangor, one of the oldest practitioners in the state, died on Sunday afternoon after an illness of several weeks. He was seventy-nine years and nine months old.

Besides his wife, he leaves six daughters and two sons. The daughters are: Mrs. Wm. G. Hooper, wife of Dr. Hooper, N. Y.; Sister M. Eugenia, mother of novices of the Sisters of Mercy at the diocesan convent in St. John; Miss Kathleen Hennessy, Miss Teresa M. Hennessy, Mrs. A. M. Murray of Cogswick, N. B., and Miss Helen C. Hennessy. The sons are: Wilfrid A. Hennessy and Harold S. Hennessy, both of St. John.

Dr. Hennessy was born on December 25, 1846, in Bangor, Ireland, and was brought to New Brunswick when an infant by his parents, who were members of a colony that left Ireland because of the famine and came to Canada. His parents took up a large farm in Melrose, Westmorland county, and his youth was spent there.

The opportunities for education were limited, but an old schoolmaster named Gilbert Wall, a typical Irish pedagogue of those days, who had emigrated from Ireland. To him and to his own early ambition for an education was due Dr. Hennessy's schooling, and he often spoke of the nights he had spent in study, with candles and a big open hearth furnishing illumination.

Dr. Hennessy was a member of the Penobscot County Medical Association, the Maine Medical Association and the American Medical Association. He was a director of the Bangor Loan and Building Association, and was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's church.

He was always kindly, and his ministrations to the many patients who came under his care in his long professional career will be cherished memories now that he is dead. He was one of the most active workers for the establishment of St. Mary's church, and was always a generous supporter of the work and institutions of his faith.

THE RETURNED SOLDIER.

Amidst the patriotic enthusiasm in the early days of the war many business men, as an inducement to recruiting, announced that some of their employes who joined the colors would be assured of a restoration to their positions on the return of the war. The time has arrived when the promise thus made is to be remembered, and we trust, honored. Already a large number of soldiers are returning in a more or less disabled condition. Where a man has been entirely disabled he, of course, cannot call upon his former employer for the redemption of the promise. The Pension Fund and the Patriotic Fund must deal with such a case. But there will be many cases in which the disability, while sufficient to disqualify the men from further military service, will leave them in a condition to be useful in the character of the work to be assigned to them may be necessary, and possibly a change may be necessary in the rate of salary or wages, owing to diminished efficiency. But an earnest effort to give the soldier his old place, or some other place in the same establishment would do much to make him comfortable. One who has long been engaged in one establishment may have a justifiable pride in his connection and desire to maintain it. Work elsewhere, if it be found, will not be quite the same as in the old place.—Journal of Commerce.
