RECENT DEATHS

Alma, Feb. 8—Mrs. Elizabeth Collins, relict of Joseph Collins, died here today. Interment will take place Wednesday. The community extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives in their loss.

Mrs. David Plett died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Kinkaid, in Moncton, on Tuesday, aged ninety-two years. She was born in Richibucto, but lived some time in Boston, as well as in Moncton.

Mrs. Isaac Porter, aged seventy-three years, died on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. C. Moore, of Riverview. She left four sons and two daughters.

Frederickton, N. B., Feb. 9—Mrs. Lady Yezza died tonight after a lingering illness aged seventy-six years. She is survived by her husband, caretaker of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, a son, Albert of Boston; and two daughters, Mrs. F. C. Hartley of Truro (N. S.), and Mrs. J. H. Pickett of this city. The body will be taken to Keswick Thursday for interment.

Children Have Kidney Trouble

Three years ago my little girl, Angela, was taken sick with scurvy fever and later dropsy set in; her face and limbs swelled and her eyes puffed. A leading physician here at the time, treated her without the slightest success. A sample of your Swamp-Root having been sent to the house at the time, I resolved to try it, and as it agreed with her stomach, I continued using it with gratifying results. The inflammation began to subside after she had taken the first fifty-cent bottle, and after she took two large bottles she was pronounced cured by the doctor and has been in good health ever since. The doctor came to see her every day and examined her every second day until he pronounced her kidneys in perfect condition.

Now then the doctor was under the impression that I was giving my girl his medicine, but as his medicine had failed to do a bit of good, and desiring not to offend him, I did not tell him I was giving her Swamp-Root and he did not know the difference. I did not use one drop of his medicine after I started my girl on Swamp-Root, and have always felt that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root saved my girl's life, for which I am grateful. I cannot praise it too highly.

Very truly,

RUNAWAY GERMAN

IS SEEN IN MAINE

One of Those Who Escaped From the Citadel in Halifax

(Bangor Commercial)

A young man who says his name is Rudolph Stenzen, and who says he is a German deserter and one of several prisoners who recently escaped from a Canadian prison near Halifax, left Dover-Foxcroft on last Friday afternoon for Boston over the Maine Central railroad. He expected to reach Boston at nine o'clock Friday evening and said he would be met by fellow countrymen who would look after his interest in the future.

Stenzen was interviewed by a Commercial reporter. He said he arrived in Dover on Thursday afternoon on a freight train over the Bangor &amp; Aroostook railroad. He says that last week several other German prisoners in a prison pen near Halifax had escaped and managed to make his way into Maine by Macanum Junction. He became a member of a gang of tramps and managed to beat his way to Henderson on Brownville Junction. He with two other men who he says were Americans reached Milo Junction on Thursday morning. "An Act in further amendment of 'The Saint John City Assessment Act 1909' and to amend the laws relating to civil franchises."

The object of the bill is:—

1. to exempt all incomes from personal labor and occupation up to and including $1000 per annum; also to exempt $500 of each such income above $1000, and exceeding $2000.

2. to impose a poll tax of $2.00 and no more upon all persons whose incomes are totally exempt from taxation.

3. to exempt all household furniture from taxation where the value does not exceed $500.

4. to provide that the last day in which the Common Council shall have power to determine and direct the assessments shall be levied in the City of Saint John shall be the 30th inst. of the 10th day of January in each year.

5. to provide that the poll tax of $2.00 shall give the same right to vote at elections which the $500 poll tax now does.

HERBERT E. WARDROP, Common Clerk.

GUARD THE RAILROAD

BRIDGE AT CALAIS

Some Excitement Caused There—The Suspicious Actions of a Stranger

Calais had a taste of war excitement on Friday evening, when it became known that the night crew of the Maine Central railroad had been ordered to remove all cars from the bridge which spans the river between the Salmon Falls and the cotton mill, used by the C. P. R. in transferring cars from the Maine Central to its own line at St. Stephen. Guards were also placed on the bridge and around the cotton mill to prevent damage to either structure.

A stranger had been seen taking notes in the neighborhood of the Salmon Falls bridge from the American side of the river during the day. He was described as peculiar looking, evidently a foreigner, and the fact that he appeared anxious to learn all he could about the bridge and mill aroused the suspicions of those with whom he talked.

The day following the Vancouver incident a stranger, who was evidently a German, entered a Calais barber shop and asked to be shaved. All efforts of the barber engaged him in conversation were fruitless, and the stranger became an object of suspicion. Whether or not he is the man seen at the Milltown bridge on Friday cannot be stated positively, but the description answers.

The bridge at the Salmon Falls is an important link between Maine and New Brunswick.

For Sore Muscles, Strains, Sprains, Bruises

Rub in a few drops of Absorbine, Jr. and you will be agreeably surprised at the prompt relief. It reduces inflammation and swelling—always pain and soreness.

Used as a Rub-Down after violent exercise or physical exertion it puts vigor and energy into jaded muscles, limbers the joints and gives the body the glow of health. Rub-down made by adding one ounce Absorbine, Jr. to a quart of water or witch hazel.

Absorbine, Jr. is more than a liniment—it is a positive germicide and therefore its use and efficiency are doubled. Applied to cuts, wounds, sores, it kills the germs, makes the part optically clean, and promotes rapid healing. Economical as only a few drops are required at an application.

Made of herbs and safe to use anywhere.

At all druggists, $1.00 per bottle or postpaid. Manufactured by W. F. Young, P. D. F., 317 Bldg. Montreal, Can.
