

KING QUERIED ABOUT SPEECH GIVEN IN N. B.

Withdraws Charge After Oshawa Crowd Asks "Who Paid for Delegation?"

OSHAWA, Ont., Sept. 13.—"Who paid for the delegation?" This was the question which was shouted from the audience again and again here Saturday afternoon at Mr. Mackenzie King's meeting.

It was the noisiest meeting of the Liberal leader's campaign since he began it nearly two months ago. Mr. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King addressed a mass meeting in Oshawa Saturday night. It is the last big meeting of his campaign.

There were some interruptions but they were mostly friendly ones.

Mackenzie King reviewed the record of his government and urged that under a Liberal regime the Dominion had been able to reduce the tariff, the income tax, and its railway liabilities, and in addition had reduced the national debt. He had just come, he said, from Oshawa, where he believed he had been able to persuade the citizens that the Liberal government, which was accused of having "ruined Oshawa for three days," perhaps knew better what was good for the auto industry than some people who had complained the most.

CHEERS AND BOOS

The Liberal leader's reference to the new prosperity in the city of Oshawa was greeted with general applause and cheers.

A reference to the tariff advisory board brought boos from some of the crowd which did not subside for some time. "I don't know one from another in this crowd but there is one individual down there who is very noisy and I'm told his name is Sandy Brown," declared Mr. King. "I am willing to withdraw that remark wholly and completely and say that you are entirely right."

"That man nearly stole my home last spring," shouted the man named Sandy Brown, flourishing a list in Mr. King's direction.

"I don't know what he means," said Mr. King, "but if the gentleman ever finds himself without a home he can come to Ottawa and visit me."

There was some applause and Mr. King continued, "I am told on the platform that Mr. Brown, thanks to the prosperity of this community, has just bought a new home."

The Oshawa delegation of last spring was spoken of at length. In the capital, said Mr. King, the Oshawa people had been courteously received. He himself had promised to come to Oshawa. "I am here this afternoon to implement my pledge."

"I said then that no man would lose a dollar or lose his job in Oshawa as a result of any tariff change. I have fulfilled that pledge."

In answer to persistent questioning as to "who paid for the delegation," Mr. King took up the reference he had made at Campbellton, N. B., to the delegation. He had told there of how difficult it was for men in the basic industries to get up deputations to come to Ottawa.

"I said that it was not a question of numbers or of demonstrations, but of the facts of the case. I did make a reference to big interests as having an advantage in bringing about demonstrations. I referred to big interests as having advantages which you as a worker have not."

"I may have used in the form of an interrogation 'who paid?' I made no reference to the McLaughlin Company or to manufacturers as such. If any other interpretation has been put upon my remarks I say that that interpretation is wrong."

Mr. King was prepared to accept as true the statement that every one from Oshawa had paid his own way.

STATEMENT HELD UNMITIGATED LIES

Stevens Replies to Story That He Was Read Out of Party by Paper

VANCOUVER, Sept. 13.—"The whole statement is a tissue of unmitigated lies," declared Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Customs last night when his attention was drawn to the statement of Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in Ottawa last night when the Liberal leader was reported as having stated that Hon. Mr. Stevens had been "read out of the party" by the Province, "the newspaper which is supporting Mr. Stevens in Vancouver."

"The whole statement is utterly false," declared the Minister of Customs. "The Province in most critical editorial has supported me and urged the people for serious reasons to vote for me."

"The whole statement," Mr. Stevens concluded, in reference to the Liberal leader's remarks, "is a tissue of unmitigated lies."

ONE THIN WOMAN GAINED 10 POUNDS IN 20 DAYS

Skinny Men Can Do the Same

All weak men and women. All nervous men and women. All skinny men and women. Can grow stronger, healthier and more vigorous and take on solid needed flesh in 30 days just by taking McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets four times a day—sugar coated and easy to take as candy.

And what a hit these flesh producing tablets have made. One druggist tripling his sales in one week.

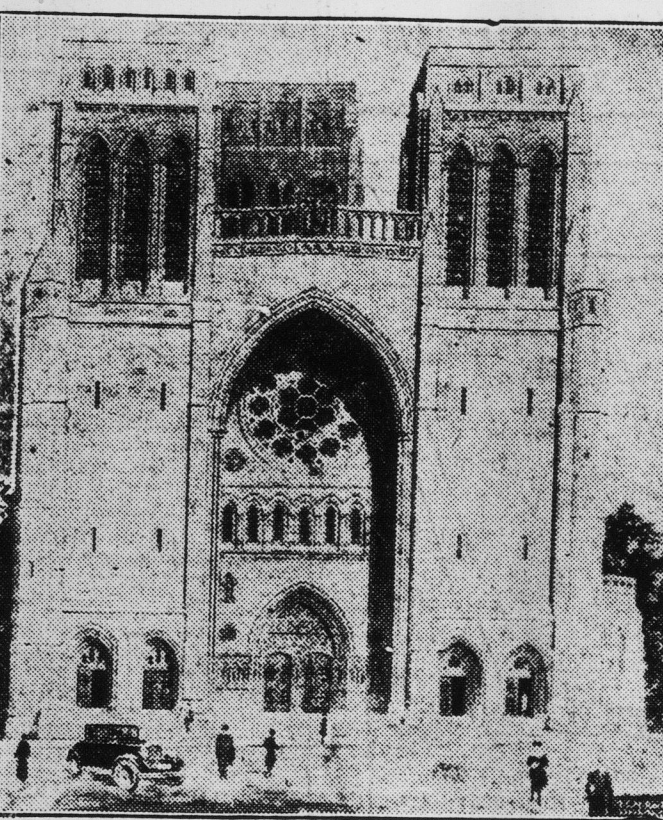

Everybody knows that from the livers of the humble codfish comes a first class vitamin that is a wonderful vitalizer, flesh producer and health creator.

Millions of McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets are sold every week and thousands of frail run-down underweight people are being helped.

A box of 60 tablets for 80 cents and if any skinny man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days—money back. Ask Watson's two stores, Rose Drug Co., William Hawker & Son, or any druggist.

Be sure and get McCoy's original and genuine and don't forget there will be nothing on earth so good to make for Japan and China. He will be so backward, listless, underweight children grow strong and robust.

NEW CATHEDRAL FOR VICTORIA

During the latter part of September the Bishop of London will officiate at the laying of the corner stone of the new Anglican cathedral in Victoria, B. C., a city already noted for its beautiful buildings. This picture shows the building as it will look when completed. It is a photograph of the drawing by the architect, J. C. M. Keith of Victoria.

Deaths

George McDonald

George McDonald died in his 70th year, in this city, on Saturday, having been in failing health for the last two years.

Mr. McDonald was one of the city's ablest and most outstanding business men and until two years ago had been one of the directors of W. H. Thorne and Co., Ltd. As a young man he had joined with the late Senator W. H. Thorne in 1878 and his remarkable executive ability, foresight and aptitude in business proved invaluable in the development of the hardware business.

Mr. McDonald was held in the highest regard by his associates as a friend of firm and was specially beloved by the younger men entering the firm's employ in each and all of whom he took a very kindly personal interest. His charitable acts and benevolences were many and can never be reckoned for they were quietly and unobtrusively done, known only to those he aided.

Mr. McDonald was born in Saint John and had lived practically all his life in the north end of the city.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Taylor, and by two brothers, Charles McDonald, of the Saint John Iron Works, Ltd., and Arthur McDonald, formerly of the Bank of New Brunswick, who is now retired and resides near Liverpool, England. Arthur McDonald was a visitor in the city this summer, but returned to England some weeks ago.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, 43 Holly street.

Mrs. George G. Watson

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Eleanor Hamm Watson, wife of George G. Watson, passed away at her home at Hampstead on Sept. 12, 1926. She was a daughter of the late Stephen and Mary Hamm, of Hampstead. She is survived by her husband, one son, Charles Dunn Watson, of Hampstead, and one daughter, Mrs. T. C. Ledingham, of Saint John. She also leaves two sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. F. C. Stults, of Hampstead, and Mrs. David S. Culley, of Yarmouth, N. Y. The brothers are John Hamm, of Shrewsbury, N. J., and Charles B. Hamm, of Toronto.

The funeral will take place from the residence at Hampstead on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 15. The service will be at 2 o'clock at the residence and at the church at 3 o'clock.

Miss Hannah Cronin

The death of Miss Hannah Cronin, after a lingering illness, which she bore with much patience and fortitude, occurred Saturday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald, 289 King street east, with whom she had made her home.

The late Miss Cronin was born in Saint John and was a lifelong resident of this city. She was possessed of an exemplary character and disposition and beloved by all who knew her. Her death will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

Daniel Cronin, of Boston, is a brother. Sisters are Mrs. John E. Fitzgerald, of this city, and Mrs. J. E. Parent, of Berlin, N. H.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning from 289 King street east to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Interment will be in the New Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Jean Nevins

At the advanced age of 98 years, Mrs. Jean Nevins, widow of Charles Nevins, passed away at her residence, 169 Douglas Avenue, on Sunday evening. She will be deeply mourned by many friends. About seven weeks ago she had the misfortune to fall and fracture her hip and the injury developed fatally. Mrs. Nevins was born at Lanark, Scotland, and was a daughter of the late John and Isabel Allen. She came to Canada when only 16 years of age. She was a faithful member of St. Luke's church and was of a very kindly and sweet disposition highly regarded by all who knew her. She was remarkably alert and active up to the time of the accident. Mrs. Nevins is survived by one son, Charles T. Nevins, of A. Chipman Smith Drug Company, and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Nevins. The funeral will take place on Tuesday from her late residence.

GEN. BOOTH TO SAIL FOR CANADA SEPT. 18

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Gen. W. Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, will sail for Canada on the Empress of France on Sept. 18. The general will travel through the Dominion to Vancouver, whence he will sail for Japan and China. He will be accompanied on the tour by his son, Brigadier Bernard Booth.

SIR H. THORNTON MARRIES MISS MARTHA WATRISS

Head of Canadian National Railways Weds at Jamestown

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 13.—At the beautiful estate of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wetmore, at Long Point, on Chautauque Lake, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Wetmore's daughter, Miss Martha Watriss, of New York City, was united in marriage with Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by Rev. Alfred E. Vonatelli, minister of the Unitarian church of Jamestown, in the presence of members of the families and a small company of intimate friends.

The bride wore an exquisite formal afternoon gown of ivory lace over ivory chiffon, and sat in a long flowing train. Her flowers were an armful of orange blossoms. She also wore a platinum bracelet set with diamonds, the bridegroom's wedding gift. Her slippers were of ivory satin to correspond to the shade of her wedding costume. She was given in marriage by Mr. Wetmore. The bride's gift to Sir Henry was a jeweled cigarette case.

At the close of the marriage service, the bride received the guests with her husband, after which a wedding luncheon was served. Sir Henry and Lady Thornton left here later for a short honeymoon to Virginia, after which they will take up their residence in Montreal. The bride was a smoke-colored going away gown, with wrap and hat to correspond, and furs of blue fox.

Lady Thornton is a daughter of Frederick Watriss, of New York City. She is a Bryn Mawr woman and a graduate of Rosemary school in Greenwich, Conn. She left college at the age of 18, and has since been engaged in constant service, continuing with the allied armies of occupation in the war. She is a member of family.

CAMPAIGN FINISHED BY LIBERAL LEADER

Interruptions Are Mostly Friendly Ones at Wind up of Tour

OTTAWA, Sept. 13.—Finishing his election campaign where he began it nearly two months ago, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King addressed a mass meeting in Ottawa Saturday night. It is the last big meeting of his campaign.

There were some interruptions but they were mostly friendly ones.

Mackenzie King reviewed the record of his government and urged that under a Liberal regime the Dominion had been able to reduce the tariff, the income tax, and its railway liabilities, and in addition had reduced the national debt.
