Many of the city pulpits were occupied by visiting clergymen yesterday. In St. David's church Rev. Frank Baird, clerk of the St. John Presbytery, conducted both services and in Knox church the preacher was Rev. R. J. Miller of Debec. In the absence of G. M. Henry, the morning service in the Edith Avenue Mission was conducted by Harold Coleman of Wycliffe College. The evening service was conducted by Harold Coleman of Wycliffe College. The services in St. Mary's church, and the evening service was conducted by Harold Coleman of Wycliffe College. The services in St. Mary's church were conducted by Rev. W. B. Williston, of West China, who received a very nearty welcome from his friends in the congregation. Mr. Williston will be in Westfield next week and later goes to Richibucto. Rev. H. B. Camp, of Water-ville, conducted the service in the Central Baptist church.

An exchange of pulpits for the morning clergy will be sold to close estate. For further particulars etc., apply to F. L. POTTS, Auctioneer.
