Waddell Goes Fishing. Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Manager Cassin of the Minneapolis club has taken Fisher Waddell to his farm at Hickman, Ky., where he is to live all winter.

Bedient's Fast Ball.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Giants are still marveling at the wonderful hop of "Muggsy" Bedient's fast ball. Several of "Muggsy" Bedient's boys say that the like of the kid wonder's jump is not caused by another pitcher in the National League, writes Ed Bang.

Snodgrass in the first inning, Merkle in the third, Doyle in the sixth, McCormick in the eighth and Herzog in the ninth were the only New Yorkers to drive the ball along the ground. Mathewson in the third and Meyers in the fifth connected for line singles. Merkle's double in the seventh was a long fly into the left field bleachers. Devore, Snodgrass, Merkle and Mathewson were retired on strikes while the other Giants, sixteen in number, hit the ball in the air, either fair or foul for hits.

Diamond Sparks.

Horace Fogel says if Joe Tinker's release depends on the Cubs getting Mike Doolan to replace him, he had better make no plans to manage the Reds, for there is not a chance of Mike being sold, traded or released.

The American Association will stand pat on its present salary limit for players, according to President Livingston.

Frank Chance has either changed his mind or is being misquoted. The cheerless leader upon his return from the coast said that Murphy would have to pay $10,000 if he wanted him to play with the Cubs next season, while a few weeks ago Chance said he would sign any contract even if it called for as little as $1,200.

Jack Nevin is having trouble trying to get some one to manage his Sacramento team in the Pacific Coast League next season. He sees that half a dozen managers have been offered the job so far.

Joe Wood, catcher of the Red Sox is back on his 20-acre farm in Pennsylvania. He celebrated his twenty-third birthday recently.

The Ring

Corbett Doing Well. Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion boxer of the world, has so far recovered from his recent operation for appendicitis that he expects to be out taking walks within a week or so. The physicians now are visiting him only once each day, and his strength is returning rapidly. They say that Corbett's iron constitution and pluck that pulled him through the crisis.

Klaus After Papke. Paris, Nov. 5.—Frank Klaus, who some time ago defeated George Carpentier in easy style and declared he was going after Bombardeur Wells' heavyweight scalp, has changed his mind and now is only with a deal to Billy Papke, who whip pad Carpentier the other night in a hard fight.

Joe Walcott. Boston, Mass., Nov. 5.—Joe Walcott, the one-time black fighting terror, is one of the pugilistic greats of other days who has not thought of coming back. Little black Joe, a definition of optimism, smilingly admitted he felt no desire to return to the ring.

Walcott sees all the fights in Boston. He takes his easy. We met him the other night at the "Knockout" Brown-Matty Baldwin battle. Danny Morgan, Brown's manager, sat with us. Danny remarked: "There is $5,000 in the house." Walcott's eyes looked big. After awhile, from Walcott:

"I fought a lot of fights. I got a home now but nothing else, just a roof and a pot's worth of money. That's enough, isn't it?"

There was a strange contract here. Twenty feet away Brown sat in his corner. Brown at his best would be easy for Walcott at the pinnacle of his career. Brown is buying real estate on Manhattan Island. He has accumulated $65,000 worth of property in two years of fighting and he was never within hailing distance of a championship fight and he has never fought a long fight.

"Remember Lavigne?" we asked Joe between rounds.

"Do I remember him? Why, man, I've ask me did you ever forget him? That's what I'd like to do. But Lavigne ain't no more. He was a good friend, outside the ring. Man, how that baby could fight. We should have some real fightin', him an' me."

Joe is happy-go-lucky, has a house and pork chops and contentment.

Athletic

Applegarth a Great Runner. English sporting critics have gone plumb mad, so to speak, about the performance of W. R. Applegarth, who is truly running some remarkable 100 and 200 yard races at the London C. C. On a grass track at the London A. C. meeting, bringing to a close fall athletics in England, Applegarth, according to three watches, was caught in new world's record time of 19.25 seconds for the 200 yards.

For twenty years or more Willie Baker held the mark of twenty seconds for the 200 yards.

KOJI YAMADA, JAPANESE EXPERT, WILL MAKE STRONG BID FOR THE WORLD'S BILLIARD TITLE

KOJI YAMADA, JAPANESE EXPERT, WILL MAKE STRONG BID FOR THE WORLD'S BILLIARD TITLE

New York, Nov. 5.—Koji Yamada, a Japanese expert, who is entered in the 182 ball line championship tournament which will begin on Nov. 11 is now practicing hard for the event. Yamada is the only foreigner in the tournament and also probably the youngest of the eight entries. He is only twenty-four years old and has been playing billiards only five years, but his performances have been excellent, and good judges who have seen him in action think the Japanese crack stands as good a chance as anybody of winning first prize. The top learned the ball line game in Germany. He played against Adorjan, Kerka, Poensgen and distance, which he established on Berkeley Oval. Since November 8, 1909, latter-day sprinters in the United States have made feeble attempts to erase it from the books, but it took the Polytechnic harrier to turn the trick.

The sports in general and close followers of athletics in England attribute Applegarth's improvement in the sprint line since his return after the Olympic games to his trainer, Sam Fritter.

The London sporting dailies are full of stories relative to Applegarth's endeavors. "Veterans" in the Sportsman, assuming that Applegarth would turn pro, say: "Applegarth is capable of running 200 yards as fast as Craig, Poole, Simmonds, or any of the fastest flyers in the world. He is coming all the time. He is a natural born sprinter, with each succeeding race he shows improvement."

"Of course, I was sorry to note his poor showing at Stockholm, but the conservation of English timers is so well established that one hesitates to feel doubtful about such performances as Applegarth's."

Applegarth entered the London meet for the express purpose of making an attempt to smash the world's record for 200 yards. To warm up for this event he ran two trials before the "century." He was clocked for one of them a yard better than even, and in the second just outside 9.45 seconds.

Applegarth, on the same afternoon, with very little rest, appeared on the mark for the furlong. He took him around a turn and when he crossed the finishing line he had equalled G. O. Wood's British record of 21.45 seconds, which was made in 1877.

Robbie Kerr, the Canadian, is credited with the world's record of 21.25 seconds around a turn, made at Toronto three years ago. When Applegarth limbered up in the two heats of the 100 yards he defeated such famous sprinters as V. H. A. D'Arcy and Jacobs, the Welsh champion, in the preliminary rounds of competitors at Stockholm. Trainer Mike Murphy watched him every morning and told some of his men to beware of the Englishman. For some unknown reason Applegarth couldn't get going as well as he liked and he met defeat after defeat in the sprint.

West Waste Control. Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 6.—Control of athletics in Canada will be shifted to western Canada for the next year at least, if the recommendations of the British Columbia Amateur Athletic Union are adopted by the A. A. U. of Canada at the annual meeting in Toronto on Saturday, Nov. 23. Milton Kaiser, president of the British Columbia union, will attend the meeting for the coast union. He will carry recommendations from the British Columbia union that the presidency and secretaryship of the governing body be transferred to the west.

The British Columbia amateur union also asks to have the 1913 national track and field championships awarded to them. The track and field championships are awarded to the British Columbia union for next year, but there may be some opposition to the boxing tournament going to the coast.

TO EXPLORE NEW GUINEA

Norwegian Enthusiast Has Plans For Expedition to Start This Year

Christiana, Nov. 5.—A Norwegian explorer, M. Carl Lumholtz, has laid before the Geographical Society of Christiania a scheme to explore the interior of the island's second largest island, New Guinea. M. Lumholtz has three conducted expeditions to Mexico, where he has lived for a considerable time, and on Indian tribes.

M. Lumholtz declared that his expedition would first start for Batavia, whence he will proceed to Borneo. At Borneo he intends to stay for three to four months, to get acquainted with the country and choose a site to severely good and reliable carriers of the Djajak tribe. The country which he desires to investigate is on the west side of the Wilhelms summit, discovered by a Dutch explorer, M. Lorentz. He intends to look for a companion, who can draw maps, take photographs and develop them; further he must be able to serve an apparatus for cinematography. Besides this man he wishes to have two Norwegian assistants to make biological and botanical studies. The expedition is expected to last for a year and a half, and will leave Europe before the end of this year.

After the lecture the plan of M. Lumholtz was supported by the highest recommendation of the members of the Geographical Society in London. He is supporting the expedition with a grant of $250, which will be added to a fund now being raised in this city.

A copy of the Kilmarnock edition of Burns' poems was sold at Sotheby's, London for £400.

KIDNEYS WERE SO SORE DIDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO.

GRAVEL AND SMALL STONES PASSED THROUGH THE URINE.

One of the most painful forms of kidney disease is Gravel or Stone in the Bladder, and is caused by the acid lime in the blood uniting and forming a gritty substance which lodges in the inner surface of the kidneys or bladder, and sets up a painful irritation.

To relieve these terrible pains it is necessary to keep the kidneys healthy for healthy kidneys secrete fluids that dissolve the gravel and stones, and they pass out through the urine harmlessly and without pain.

Mrs. Elmore Baldwin, Windsor, Ont., writes:—"I was so weak I could do no more work. I tried many doctors and every one of them told me to go to some institution. Reading of Doan's Kidney Pills, I tried them, and am now well, and can recommend them to all. My kidneys were so sore I did not know what to do, but after using the Doan's Kidney Pills, you will be surprised at all the gravel and small stones that passed through my urine. Now I am well and able to do my own work."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The F. M. Wilburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. When ordering direct, specify "Doan's."
