

GOOD PLACE TO BUY GOOD CLOTHES

$25 Gilmour Suits Now $10

It's good to be true! Yet it is a fact. I have assembled some of our $15 to $25 suits, mostly the more expensive styles, with fancy flaps and cuffs, and have marked the whole lot $10.

It's going like dew before the sun—but you may get your share if you come quickly.

These suits—choice blues and blacks, the trousers having been sold. If suits and vests are now discounted and marked $8 to $12.

Twenty per cent to 33-1/3 off on most of our FINEST SUITS, including the down-to-date styles.

No space here to describe these real bargains in this annual clearance sale. We urge you to call and see them—and soon.

PERSONALS

G. W. Pham, M. P. P., of Woodstock, arrived in the city today.

Judge C. N. Cockburn and C. S. Everett, of St. John, are at the Royal.

H. A. Bell, K. C., returned to the city today.

N. R. Brisson, of the passenger department of the C. P. R., arrived in the city today.

Fred W. on the evening staff of the Montreal train.

H. A. Brennan, claims agent of the C. P. R., arrived in the city on the Montreal train today.

Chief Engineer Moses Burpee of the Grand Rapids and Northern Railway, who has been one of the directors of the Maine Engineers' Association, which was fully organized, is a native of St. John.

Frja of Robert A. Christie, of the N. B. R., will be pleased to hear that he has greatly improved after his illness at his home in Victoria.

St. John Tribune—Rev. Thomas Marshall on Saturday for Bermuda. He will be absent about a month. Owing to his illness, Miss Hazel Hughes, Junior, of the Oratory in Mount Allison University, has been compelled to give her work and return to her home in Charlottetown.

John, L. P. Paris returned to White's this morning.

H. E. White, of the inland revenue department, came in from Fredericton last evening on the Boston train.

The condition of Sister Genevieve at the after Marieville Home was reported as improving considerably.

Dr. E. A. Pfeister is laid up with a severe attack of influenza.

Friends of John Ogilvy, who recently left St. John for Vancouver, where he is with Columbia manager for an insurance company, learn from recent letters that he is much pleased with the coast and the outlook for business.

Peter Clind was a passenger on the outgoing Montreal express last evening.

Major A. E. Massie left for Montreal last evening.

Rev. George Steele, D. D., of Amherst, is in the city.

TABERNACLE CHURCH.

Rev. E. B. McLachlan, of Moncton, preached to a large congregation in the Tabernacle U. B. church last evening. Some who have heard Mr. McLachlan speak before, took the opportunity of seeing him while he is in St. John. He is a very impressive speaker, and his strong point is his originality, which impresses on the minds of his hearers the Gospel truths which will soon be forgotten. He will be at the church every night this week except Saturday.

(C. P.) Steamer Empress of India arrived at 10:30 a. m. on Friday last from Vancouver.
