A Missionary --The Man in White

He may look strange walking the streets in a Suit and Hat, pure spotless White on one side and gradually getting Gray on the other. But he is doing a friendly service.

Repeatedly the costume of the Man in White is taken apart, one side Dry Cleaned and sewn back onto the neglected half. Thus is kept clear the amount of dirt the everyday Suit collects from nothing else than street dust. How long you can call your Suit clean is thus being investigated by the Man in White. He is a Suit, at small cost. Making your outer garments compare with your linen in freshness.
