

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
NINTH ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE
SYNOD OF THE DIOCESE OF MONTREAL,

CANADA,

JUNE 18TH, 1867.

---

FIRST DAY.

The opening service of the Ninth Annual Meeting of the Synod of this Diocese was combined with that appointed for the consecration of Christ Church Cathedral, and commenced at 10.30 A.M.

The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. the BISHOP OF ILLINOIS, and the Holy Communion was administered to the Clergy, Lay Delegates, and other members of the Church who were present, by the Most Rev. the LORD BISHOP OF MONTREAL and Metropolitan of Canada, assisted by the Bishops of MAINE, VERMONT, QUEBEC, and NIAGARA. At 2 P.M., the Synod assembled pro formâ, in the Vestry of Christ Church Cathedral, and was adjourned by the Bishop till the following morning at 10 A.M.

SECOND DAY.

After divine Service at 9 A.M. in Christ Church Cathedral, on Wednesday, the 19th of June, the Lord Bishop, Clergy, and Lay Delegates assembled at 10 A.M. in the Cathedral School Room for the transaction of business. The appointed prayers having been offered, the names of the Clergy were called by the Clerical Secretary.

The Bishops of Vermont, Virginia, Illinois, and Maine, U. S., also of Quebec, Ontario and Niagara, here entered the Synod, and, on the invitation of the Metropolitan, took seats on the platform, amid loud applause, the members of Synod standing.