

WEEKLY WEATHER SYNOPSIS.

Victoria Meteorological Office.

3rd to 9th October, 1900.

The week commenced on the 3rd with a low pressure area over the Vancouver Island coast and a high area over the Territories, Manitoba and Montana. Rain fell throughout the Pacific Coast states, and unsettled, irregular areas prevailed east of the Rocky Mountains. On the 4th the low area had largely increased, and extended from the ocean to the lakes. Heavy rain fell in California and snow in the Northwest. On the 5th the barometer began to rise along the Coast from California to Vancouver Island, and low areas were passing over the northern portion of the province, snow again falling in the Territories. On the 6th the Coast high area rapidly developed, becoming central in Alberta and Oregon, a low area being central in Manitoba. The temperature at Calgary fell to 4 degrees above zero. A thunderstorm occurred at Winnipeg. This high area continued to develop, and on the 7th covered the whole country from California to Manitoba, the low area having become central at Port Arthur, with a heavy rainfall there of 1.70 inches in the 24 hours. The high pressure held its own during the 8th, the weather remaining fair at most points; temperatures were cool in the Northwest, and much warmer in the Pacific Coast states, especially in California. On the 9th the pressure commenced to give way over the province, the high area still containing central in Oregon and Utah, and the week closed with a low area of some energy centred in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and the weather in British Columbia becoming cloudy and showery, but the barometer remaining moderately high in the province. Victoria reports nearly 48 hours of continuous sunshine recorded; highest temperature, 64 on the 8th; lowest, 38 on 6th; rainfall, .06 inch.

New Westminster reports rainfall, .42 inch; highest temperature, 64 on 8th; lowest, 40 on 3rd, 4th and 5th; rainfall, .10 inch; highest temperature, 64 on 8th; lowest, 32 on 4th.

The following is a summary of the weather for September:

Rainfall.	Inches.
Victoria	1.15
City Waterworks	1.43
Goldstream	2.08
Alderton	1.68
New Westminster	2.04
Point Garry	1.46
Vancouver	1.61
Burrard Inlet	1.18
Roseland	2.56
Barkerville	2.00
Naas Harbor	3.88
Port Eslington	4.87

In Victoria the record of bright sunshine was 203 hours and 6 minutes; the highest temperature was 77 on the 11th; the lowest 59 on the 30th; and the mean temperature for the month was 55.29.

Wind. The total number of miles recorded on the anemometer was 3,233, and the direction was as follows: North, 318; northeast, 106; east, 278; southeast, 118; south, 1,367; southwest, 457; west, 577; and northwest, 18.

Albert—Mean temperature, 57.74; highest, 83 on 11th; lowest, 31 on 25th. Barkerville—Mean temperature, 45.09; highest, 72 on 11th; lowest, 6 on 22nd. New Westminster—Mean temperature, 55.35; highest, 76; lowest, 35. Vancouver—Mean temperature, 55.05; highest, 71 on 7th; lowest, 34 on 30th. Point Garry—Mean temperature, 53.03; highest, 68 on 7th; lowest, 31 on 30th. Roseland—Highest, 83; lowest, 26. Kamloops—Highest, 78; lowest, 26.

Local News.

CLEANING OF CITY AND DISTRICTS.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mrs. E. Petherick, formerly of this city, has been granted a divorce from her husband by the Seattle courts.

The returns of the Victoria clearing house for the week ending October 9th were $554,220, balance $175,750.

The death occurred yesterday of John J. Hart, at the family residence. Deceased was 65 years of age and a native of London, Eng. The funeral will take place from the residence, 166 Yates, street, to-morrow afternoon at 2.30.

The funeral of the late George Sargison took place yesterday from the family residence and the Metropolitan Methodist church. Rev. E. S. Rowe conducted the services. The following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. N. Shakespeare, D. McLean, J. H. Baker, H. Siddall, H. G. Hall and J. P. Burgess.

The members of the city council were photographed by Savannah this morning, the manipulator giving the fateful pressure shortly after ten o'clock. The animated discussions of last evening did not at all disturb the placid countenances of the civic solons, and they bore the ordeal with stoical resignation. The picture will be reproduced in the Board of Trade report.

A pretty wedding took place this morning in the parlors of Hotel Victoria, when Miss F. Nail was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to A. V. Farnsworth. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. E. S. Rowe of the Metropolitan Methodist church. The wedding was private, only a few friends being present. Both the bride and bridegroom are residents of Tacoma.

The operations of constructing the new swing on Rock Bay bridge will be commenced probably at the end of the present week. The new swing will cost $2,000, the finance committee's report to the council last evening recommending that this sum be appropriated, being adopted. The structure will be similar to the old one, with additional contrivances which will tend toward strength and durability.

Citizens generally are again reminded of the public meeting which has been called by the mayor for this evening at the preliminary steps for the holding of an agricultural and industrial exhibition in this city next year. The difficulty has hitherto been that steps have not been taken sufficiently in advance of the season of the fall fairs to insure a good exhibition. By moving in the matter early, this difficulty will be removed, and ample time given for the holding of a successful fair here next fall. A full attendance is urged by the mayor and the promoters of the enterprise.

A well attended meeting of the business men of this city was held this morning in the board of trade rooms to consider a proposal to organize a business men's excursion to Comox, the trip to include Nanaimo and intermediate points. It is proposed to leave Victoria on Friday next, taking in the Chemainus saw mills, Extension mines and Ladysmith. The party is expected to reach Nanaimo late on Friday afternoon.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) The funeral of the late J. Hart took place this afternoon from the family residence. The religious services were conducted by Rabbi Klunkenstein, both at the residence and grave.

The meeting of the shareholders of the B. C. Yukon railway company, which was to be held this morning, was postponed until Monday next. It will be held at the office of R. Cassidy, Langley street.

At the manse, Fort street, last evening, Rev. Dr. Campbell solemnized the marriage of Clarence Merrill Dow, journalist, Ottawa, and Madge King, of Washington. They left for their home in Ottawa after the marriage.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Victoria & Sidney railway was held to-day, when the reports for the year were submitted. President Riley, Manager Patterson, and the old board of directors were re-elected.

The remains of the late David McMillan, son of D. McMillan, of Spring Ridge, were interred at Ross Bay cemetery this afternoon. The funeral took place from the residence, Taunton street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Campbell.

Letters received from the north by Secretary Elworthy of the Board of Trade indicate that there is a scarcity of ship carpenters and caulkers at Bennett. Although caulkers are receiving from $1 to $1.25 per hour, and ship carpenters 80 cents, sufficient men cannot be obtained to carry on the work which is pressing at the point mentioned.

Col. Gregory last evening received a telegram from the East announcing the elevation of his father, one of the best known barristers in N. B. to the bench of that province. Premier Emmerson, who visited Victoria this summer, and whose name was also associated with the appointment, has resigned his portfolio, and will contest Westmoreland, for the Dominion house.

In the account of an interview with R. M. Palmer, government fiscal inspector, which appeared in these columns, that gentleman was incorrectly reported as saying that the majority of apples exhibited at the New Westminster fair were specimens from Ontario districts. Mr. Palmer stated that the prizes in apples went to interior districts, such as Okanagan, Salmon Arm, Lytton and Kamloops.

Capt. Fleet, who succeeds Capt. Kerby in command of H. M. S. Phaeton, arrived from England this afternoon, together with twenty officers, and between three and four hundred men, including new crews for that ship and the Virago, and relief drafts for other vessels on this station. The big party arrived on the steamer Yosemite. They came from the naval barracks, Ketchikan, and embarked at Liverpool on the steamship Carthagenian, making the long trip here with few delays. On Saturday the skeleton crew of the torpedo destroyer Sparrowhawk, under Petty Officer Hitchcock will leave for home, accompanied by the old crew of the Phaeton and the remaining crew of the Virago.

(From Thursday's Daily.) The only case to come up in the city police court this morning was the charge against Ah Chun of supplying intoxicants to Philip, the Nephew Bay aborigine, who yesterday paid a $25 penalty for drunkenness. Both Philip and his brother maintain that Ah Chun furnished the liquor, but the accused stoutly proclaims his innocence, and claims that he can produce witnesses to prove it. The case was remanded until to-morrow in order to enable Ah Chun to bring forward his witnesses.

Rev. P. Jenna solemnized a quiet but pretty wedding early yesterday morning at St. John's church. The contracting parties were Miss Mary Johnson, a well known Victorian, and A. H. Hartley, of Leicester, Eng. The bride wore a handsome travelling dress of brown cloth, and the bridegroom, a suit of grey cloth. A pretty tailor-made gown of grey cloth, a pretty Mrs. Hartley were the recipients of many handsome presents. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in the Sound cities and Vancouver.

The First Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, when the ceremony of uniting Miss Mary Martin, eldest daughter of Robert Martin, of Renfrewshire, Scotland, and Henderson Lawrie, late of London, Eng., in the holy bonds of matrimony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Campbell. A. R. McFarlane, Jr., gave away the bride. She carried a bouquet of roses and carnations, and was dressed in a handsome traveling suit. The bridesmaid was Miss E. R. Milne, Mr. F. Morse supported the groom. After leaving the church the happy couple proceeded to Mr. J. D. Milne's residence, Humboldt street, where a reception was held and many handsome presents were received. The bride received as a gift from the groom a handsome topaz ring, and the bridesmaid a pretty brooch. The honeymoon will be spent on the American side, the happy couple leaving this morning for the Sound cities.

Vicar—But surely the voice of conscience appeals to you sometimes? Don't Old Reprobate—Maybe it does, sir; but then, you see, I'm rather hard of hearing.

A woman who is weak, nervous and cannot rest and feel like a well person. Carter's Iron Pills cure the circulation, remove nervousness, and give strength and rest.

Along the Waterfront.

Steamer Cottage City got in from the North late last night and reported having passed the Danube yesterday morning in Granville channel, just above Kennedy Island. When leaving Sitka the steamer Bertha was three days overdue from the Westward. There were 150 passengers on the Cottage City. Four Chinese aboard are from the Cassiar district, two being from Dease lake and two from Thicket Creek. All were said to have considerable gold. Mail advices brought by the steamer reported the death by drowning of S. A. Tonne, a well known Klondike miner. Tonne and his partner, Thomas Allison, were building a raft six miles above Ogilvie when the former slipped and fell into the river. Tonne was a native of Fairmont, Minn. He had been in the Yukon country since the spring of 1898. Deceased was 23 years old and unmarried.

The steamer Alpha, which is now commanded by Captain Foster, who for a long time was in the employ of the C. P. N. company, is at the outer wharf to-day discharging salmon. She arrived from Vancouver last night with 21,000 cases of fish from Northern British Columbia ports, and will be here until Saturday. She brings news from the Skeena that the trial of those accused of burglarizing the mail at Eslington has not yet begun, a delay in the court proceedings being occasioned by the absence of an important witness in the fireman of the steamer Monte Christo, which vessel was reported yesterday as in the rocks in the upper Skeena.

The first sealers have arrived from Behring sea. Schooner Ocean Belle, Capt. Lavender, dropped anchor in James Bay yesterday afternoon, and this morning the Sancy Lass, which was spotted off Carmanah by the steamer Willapa last Saturday, sailed into port with a favorable breeze. Both vessels have about the same report to make, except that while the Belle secured 333 skins, the Sancy Lass had only 191 skins. Bad weather and a rough sea were responsible for the small catch. It is reported that the Borealis, with 128 seals, arrived on the 10th of August, the Carrie C. W. and the Ainoka, about 500, and the Favorite, 330.

The sealer Aurora has arrived off the harbor, and her crew came ashore this afternoon. They report an uneventful cruise, and took for the season's work in all 178 skins, bringing her total catch for the year up to 418 skins. It will be remembered that the Aurora did not return to port after her cruise off the coast, but headed direct for Behring sea.

DISMISSAL OF LIBERALS.

Our Correspondent Calls Upon the Lieut.-Governor to Interfere.

Revelstoke, Oct. 8.—I submit that the dismissal of H. N. Coursier, gold commissioner, for purely party purposes calls for decided action by the Lieut.-Governor. If the Dundas government is not a Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the question of invading claret excuses. Let the Lieut.-Governor appoint a commission to investigate the dismissal of this business man, and if it is shown that there is no valid grounds for the dismissal, then let us have the ministers of the executive dismissed, giving them a dose of their own medicine, and let the elections be fought on party lines. I am not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs, but I am less in favor of the causes of the Liberal office holder at the instigation of the local Conservative member and the Conservative political machine here, then it is time for a show down. There is no use barking the