The Man Who Assisted the Chain Gang Guards is Set Free. Rev. J. H. Hector is a drawing card and among his admirers are not a few of his own color. So last night when Mr. Hector was to speak in Carleton Tom Lane with two dusky friends went over to hear him. Now Bill Kennedy has a hidden regard for one of the young ladies. This feeling is not reciprocated and when Kennedy asked 4f he might see her home the maiden felt that it was up to her to decline the honor. But Bill wanted to go, so he and Lane had a friendly scuffie which might have become more serious. Lane was in the act of picking up a stone to throw at Kennedy when Sergt. Ross happened along and arrested. him. This morning he was discharged from custody.

As the steamer St. Croix was coming out of Portland harbor, her propeller broke and she was, as a result, considerably delayed. She was an hour late leaving her wharf at Boston Wednesday morning, not getting away till ten o'clock. The accident at Portland reduced the boat's speed about six knots an hour, and she did not reach here till seven o'clock this morning. She was due here at five o'clock yesterday. The passengers did not know of the accident till yesterday afternoon.

OLD JED PROUTY.

Charles Cowle's production of that good old play, "Old Jed Prouty," drew a large and appreciative audience last night. Curtain calls were frequent. The staging was splendid, and there was not a weak point in the whole show. Charles Cowles made an inimitable Jed Prouty. He is clearly understood in every part of the house, and puts all the necessary originality into his interpretation of old Jed's lowable ways. All the members of the company acquitted themselves creditably.

THE CHALET NAME.

A meeting of the Chalet residents was held last evaning to further consider the question of a new name for the place. It was decided to choose the name by ballot at a meeting to be held in the near future. The choice will be from the following: Renforth, Kennebecccasis, Damous, Lucerne, Fulton, Hazen, Lipton, Adanac, Millicete and Arleigh. Adanac is found by spelling Canada backwards.

A PECLUIAR HABIT.

Edward Addison appeared in court today to answer the charge made by the board of health for not cleaning his premises. During the hearing Mr. Addison made a break for the door and when stopped by Sergt, Hijwell explained that he was subject to fainting spells. He was liable to drop off at any time and had a hibit of doing this.

He was let out for fresh air.
