SEVEN

FIVE GRADUATES FROM LAW SCHOOL

Some years before the organization of the law school an effort was made to establish a department of law in connection with the University of New Brunswick, the school to be situated in St. John. His Honor Chief Justice Barker who was then practicing at the bar, took a very active part in the matter, but the authorities of the University of New Brunswick did not seem to take to the idea. The late Dr. Stockett also brought the matter before the board of regents of Mt. Allison, but there seemed to be no disposition to take hold of it. Later on Rev. Dr. Partridge interviewed a number of the professors of St. John with respect to the organization of a school under the auspices of Kings College, Windsor, N. S. It was through the efforts of Dr. Partridge that the school was started and the first classes commenced in October, 1882. The school has been in successful operation ever since. The first dean was Dr. Allen O. Earle, K.C., who occupied that position for ten years. Upon his resignation, Oct. 27, 1902, Dr. Silas Alward, K.C., succeeded him.

On the death of St. John C. Allen, who was the first dean, His Honor Mr. Justice Hamilton was appointed patron, and he now fills that office.

The faculty at present consists of the Hon. Mr. Justice Hamilton and the president of Kings College, patrons; Dr. Silas Alward, K.C., dean of the faculty and professor of Roman and common law; Dr. Allen O. Earle, K.C., evidence and wills; Dr. T. D. Walker, medical jurisprudence; John M. Baxter, B.C.L., bills and notes; W. B. Walmsley, K.C., procedure and pleading; E. P. Raymond, B.A., procedure; J. D. Phinney, M.A., K.C., constitutional law; Hon. H. A. McKeown, M.A., K.C., contracts and crimes; E. Taylor, B.A., L.L.B. (Harc), admiralty and equity; J. Roy Campbell (secretary), real property.

Besides the faculty the following are members of the board of examiners: Attorney General Hazen and M. G. Teed, K.C., president of the New Brunswick Bar Association.

ANTICS OF A RUNAWAY HORSE

A runaway horse caused some excitement on Mill street this morning. It came dashing down Pond street about twelve o'clock and cut across the lot opposite the depot, where it stopped at the edge of the wharf. A C. R. gateman made a gallant attempt to capture it, but the horse saw him coming and made for him in a vicious manner. The latter turned and flew, pursued by the horse, and finally dodged behind one of the gates. Just then the Atlantic express came along and the animal had a narrow escape from being run over. It was finally captured by its owner.

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

The Iowa Woman Suffrage Association has addressed a letter to each candidate for the state legislature asking him what action he will take on the woman suffrage question. It is of course telling him that if he does not reply before a certain date, his silence will be construed as opposition. The suffragists request the treatment they received at the hands of the legislature this last winter and they propose to let the members know it.

Miss Perle Penfield is making a campaign for woman suffrage in Kentucky under the auspices of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association, of which Miss Laura Clay is the president. She is speaking at parlor and public meetings, to labor unions, schools, colleges, etc.

Mrs. Helen Hoy-Greely, a clever young New York woman, who was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, April 10th, is president of the New York Co-operative Woman Suffrage League.

While the women of the United States are being admonished on one hand not to emulate the example of the English suffragettes, an Ohio editor is suggesting that "What the women should do is to forcibly release every woman prisoner confined in any place, and take forcible possession of every woman's institution." He says, "That is speaking at parlor and public meetings, to labor unions, schools, colleges, etc."

The Central Labor Council of Los Angeles, Cal., on April 2, adopted a set of resolutions strongly endorsing woman suffrage, and recommending all members to sign the woman suffrage petition to congress. On April 8, the District Council of Carpenters of Philadelphia took similar action, pledging "to assist the Pennsylvania Woman's Suffrage Association in securing signatures to the national petition to congress to submit to the legislature of the several states for ratification an amendment to the national constitution which shall enable women to vote."

ROBBER TRACED BY INK UPON BLOTTER

San Francisco Police Find Identity of Letter Box Thief Through Unusual Clue.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—Ink stains on a blotter have enabled the local post office officials to discover the identity of F. B. Mills, alias Frank Langham, a letter box robber, who was arrested recently while trying to pass on Ross Brothers a check for $500 drawn in favor of Benjamin Fay Mills, an evangelist, which had been stolen from a letter box in Alameda. The blotter was found among the prisoner's effects in his room in Oakland, the address being read by holding it before a mirror.

The only words discernible were "San Antonio, Texas." With this slight clue Post Office Inspector Joseph P. Johnson communicated with the postmaster at San Antonio, enclosing a picture of Mills in the letter. A reply to Johnson's inquiry was received in due season.

Mills, whose correct name is given as S. H. Fisher, has served two terms in the Texas penitentiary. His last conviction was on a charge of burglary committed in San Antonio in 1907. For this crime Fisher served two years.

It was a letter addressed to Chief of Police Charles Van Riper, of San Antonio, that Fisher had blotted. This letter was received by Inspector Johnson, with a full history of the prisoner. In the letter Fisher thanked the chief for past kindnesses, saying he was living a good life and expected to return to Texas in about two years. The letter was written from Los Angeles, where Fisher was working at his trade as a machinist, which he had learned while in the penitentiary. He complained of the low wages paid in Los Angeles, stating that he was then working for $2.50 a day.

Fisher was first arrested in Austin, Texas, on a charge of arson. He served his term for this offense here, where he was arrested for burglary by Detective Van Riper, who is the chief of police. While in Texas he travelled under many aliases. The initials "J. M. C." are tattooed on his arm, this work having been done while he was a convict.

Fisher comes from one of the best families in the South, according to Van Riper, although he failed to give the address of Fisher's parents. In the letter written to Van Riper Fisher tells of visiting his sister in El Paso while on his way to California.

AMATEUR PERFORMANCE AT THE OPERA HOUSE

In the Opera House last evening Arthur McCloskey, well known in local dramatic circles, supported by a company of St. John amateurs, gave a performance of "The Belle." He is to be congratulated on his success.

McCloskey's work last night was most praiseworthy and showed talent above the average. He has a pleasing voice and his portrayal of the emulous of gaily four and impudent rage which consumes the breast of Mathias the burgomaster, was impressive and fascinating.

He was ably supported by Miss O'Reilly as the Burgomaster's wife, and by P. Conlon as Christian, the French quartermaster. Miss Birchill, as Annette, was most pleasing. The company of St. John amateurs, led by Zimmerman, were very adequately sustained by L. Conlon, J. R. McCloskey and H. Taylor, who played the part of the burgomaster's son. The work of Miss O'Brien as Sozel, also won praise for her. Tonight's bill is Lost Paradise.

PERSONAL

A. W. Mackay returned to the city this morning. He was in the Boston train at noon today.

P. J. Gillespie arrived on the Boston express this morning.

Mrs. A. M. Rowan returned to the city this morning.

W. M. Jarvis came in on the Atlantic express today.

Sydney Bowden, formerly of the firm of Dillon and Bowden, of this city, is now of Toronto, arrived in the city today, and will leave on the Victorian at the end of the week for a visit to England.

C. W. Miller, representing the Kirk Brown Company, is in the city. The company opens an engagement at the Opera House next Monday.

THE MAY ROD AND GUN.

Variety is the dominating feature of the May number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont. "In accord with the season there are some good fishing stories, while hunting receives such a full share of attention that moose, bear, wolf and wild game all have particular stories given up to them. Two fine exploration papers—an illustrated review of Mr. Tyrrell's book, "Through the Sub-Arctic of Canada," and one by Mr. Dickinson describing a personal trip through Northern Ontario—give us some little idea of how much remains to be done in exploration work in Canada. Mr. Clapham has much fine dog article, "The Begbie for Sport," which all dog-lovers will peruse with interest. The declaration of Ontario government that have licensed guides is noted and the order-in-council dealing with the matter printed in full. Dr. C. Y. Warman's paper on Wild Life appeals to every lover of the outdoors and cannot fail to have some effect in the direction the author wishes. This number completes the tenth volume and attention is drawn to the work of the magazine in Forest, Fish and Game Protection, and the manner in which the movement in its favor has spread throughout Canada. The position achieved by the magazine is dwelt upon with pride and credit given to all those who have assisted Canada's sporting magazine. If future numbers are as good as this birthday issue—and we are assured that not only will the magazine be kept up but efforts made to improve upon it—there can be no doubt at all as to the future of Rod and Gun.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. John Dineen took place at 8:15 o'clock this morning from her late home, 175 Rodney street, West End. The remains were taken to the Church of Assumption, where Rev. J. J. O'Donnell said Requiem Mass. Interment was in Sand Cove Cemetery.

CAMPBELLTON KICKS AT INCREASED DEBT

Mr. Crockett of Campbellton said last summer the town council issued $25,000 water bonds and the citizens did not know where the money had gone. Later they made extensions to the water system and made another bond issue of $50,000. The citizens did not believe that ninety-nine in every hundred citizens were opposed to a further bond issue.

Hon. Mr. Maxwell read letters from taxpayers of Campbellton who objected to the passage of the bill.

At the suggestion of the committee, Mr. Currie consented to have a referendum clause added to the issue of $50,000 additional water bonds be submitted to a vote of the ratepayers.

The bill to amend the act relating to rates and taxes was taken up. There were really three bills under discussion, that introduced by Mr. Woods, of Queens, one by Mr. Robinson, of York, and one brought forward by H. F. Flewelling, of Kings. The object in the three bills was identical and was to make more effective the collection of delinquent taxes.

Dr. Brynne said that the question was discussed at the last meeting of the Gloucester Municipal Council and a resolution was adopted in favor of such legislation as now proposed.

Secretary Treasurer Elias, of York, explained some of the difficulties that the county had in collecting taxes from non-residents and incorporated companies and which Mr. Robinson's bill was intended to obviate.

A bill was drafted satisfactory to all the parties and will be recommended to the house.

The general oil shales company's bill, an amendment to the N. B. Aluminum Production Company's charter, received from the legislature five years ago, is to authorize the taking over of the latter company.

Mr. Wilson thought the legislature should be careful of legislation of this character. It was intended to interest a large amount of foreign capital and the investment should be protected as far as possible. Foreign capital had been lost in companies previously incorporated here.

TOREADOR SLAIN BEFORE ROYALTY

Horridly at Tragedy in Bull Ring.

MADRID, April 26.—A brilliant day ended in a tragedy at the bull ring this afternoon. Princes of the royal family, the Infantes Carlos and Alfonso, and the Infanta Elena, were present in the royal box. There was a fair sprinkling of French and English visitors mingled with thousands of spectators.

The last bull had been in the ring for some time when it suddenly took the Mexican torreador, La Gattillita, unaware of the bull's horns, pierced his neck.

Wild uproar started when the people saw the twenty-two year old torreador fall. As it became evident that La Gattillita was terribly wounded, screams went up from many women in the arena, several of whom fainted.

Paul M. Mackay came in on the Boston train at noon today.

The bull was almost immediately turned away from the body, laid in its glittering costume, lying dead in the sand of the arena.

There was one other torreador in the ring. This was also a Mexican, named Gona, who proved more fortunate than his comrade. He was a few feet away from the bull's head when it charged. He was not present to witness the tragedy.

FLIGHT OF GEESSE FROM SOUTH NOW RARE SIGHT

Route of Birds Brings Them Over Great Wheat Belt, Upon Which They Feed.

TOPEKA, April 26.—The residents of Kansas know that spring days are near when the flight of wild geese from their southern winter home to the northern nesting place begins. But the ranks of this once mighty aerial army have been thinned by the sportsmen.

Thirty years ago the army of wild geese contained millions. In addition to the slaughter of the birds in their flight from summer to winter home, they have been pursued in North Dakota and Canada, and in their winter home along the shores of the Gulf of Mexico.

The path of the wild geese over Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and the Dakotas, many persons believe, is selected because of the directness of the route. This is not the reason. The states named comprise the great wheat belt of the continent, upon the fields of which the geese feed on their journeys. When they go south in the late fall the scattered grain from the season's harvest on the stubble fields provide them with food. When they return in March the green fields are inviting all the way from the Red River to their Canadian home.

TIN TOMATO CAN SAVES MAN'S LIFE

With It a Castaway Farm Hand Bails His Boat for 29 Hours

Blown 62 Miles by Storm—Unable to Row in Great Gale, Edgar L. Brown is Driven Across Lake Ontario.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 26.—Edgar L. Brown, who was blown across Lake Ontario in a recent big storm in a flat bottom punt, walked down the gangway of the ferryboat Ontario at Charlotte at five o'clock a few days later and was cheered by half the population of the village. The famous boat was on the ferry and was named in due season.

The misunderstanding came about through Tabby's innocent mistake in choosing a hen's nest as a cradle for her five little ones.

It was a fateful coincidence that the hen happened to be the same one which a golf ball had been used as a gentle hint to Biddy that something was wrong in due season.

The hen and the cat are owned by George W. Kriegerman, of Webster Place.

Biddy would walk up to the nest and look at the little white spheres. Only once she sat on the egg for a few minutes.

Then came Tabby, house hunting. The nest to her was a "lovely flat," and she moved in with her family.

The next time Biddy peeped over the edge of the box she saw the kittens. Reasoning quickly from cause to effect, she decided that they were hers.

Since then she has cuddled the kittens under her wings most of the time. When Tabby comes near Biddy ruffles her feathers and "peeks" at her. The cat has not yet mustered up courage to fight. She sits on a roost above the nest and snarls. Her only chance of escape is by jumping down when Biddy goes to bed with the chickens at sundown.

SAY MURDER VICTIM LIVES; 'LORD' SERVING A LIFE TERM

Two Persons Identify Man as One Supposed to Have Been Slain by Barrington; Who Posed as Nobleman.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 26.—In J. C. Maybray, a man in jail here, on charges of working fake horse races throughout the country, federal authorities have identified "Jim" McCann, the St. Louis turfman, who was supposed to have been murdered in St. Louis in 1903, and for whose death "Lord" Frederick Barrington was serving a life sentence in the penitentiary at Jefferson City.

Two persons are positive that Maybray is McCann. They are Louis Deming, a broker from St. Louis, and Mrs. Laura Gales, who says she represents the British society of St. Louis. Standing before Maybray in the jail today Mrs. Gales positively identified him as McCann. Later, further identification was made by Deming.

Barrington is an Englishman, who came to this country after a record as a crook and petty thief, which extended from England half way around the world. He posed as a member of the British nobility and a former officer in England's army.

One night McCann disappeared and Barrington told his wife that he had seen him in a night the night before. Several weeks later, when the committee proposed to have the pastore's photograph reproduced on pillow tops and "chances" taken off. All the girls voiced their approval at once, but when the plan was suggested to the person he objected.

WAVES BEFORE EARTHQUAKES

Discovery by Italian Priest—Promonitions Too Late for Use.

PARIS, April 26.—The Figaro says that Father Maggioni, director of the seismic observatory near Siena, has discovered a new class of waves which are propagated through the earth some minutes before the mechanical waves, which are the first manifestations heretofore known of earthquakes.

He has constructed an apparatus which renders the new waves perceptible and permits the forecasting of an earthquake.

The apparatus was successfully tested on April 11, when it twice announced earthquakes which occurred within a radius of twelve miles from the location indicated four minutes after the apparatus had signalled them.

MESSINA, April 26.—An official estimate of the earthquake victims at 25,000 and of those still in the ruins at 45,000. Both figures are the minimum.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 26.—Edward Payson Weston, who is walking from the Atlantic to the Pacific, passed through Springfield today and left for Grand, where he expects to spend the night.

HEN "SET" ON GOLF BALL, NOW "MOTHER" OF KITTENS

Order in Years Than in Experience, She Tries to Hatch Out Rubber Nest Egg—Finds Herself Responsible for Family of Black Tabbies

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 26.—St. Louis county sparrow hen, not having had any domestic experience, though she is no spring chicken, is mothering a litter of kittens, fondly believing that she hatched them from a golf ball.

The mother is a black cat, is indignant about it, but hasn't yet found a way to establish her right to the custody of her own offspring.

The misunderstanding came about through Tabby's innocent mistake in choosing a hen's nest as a cradle for her five little ones.

It was a fateful coincidence that the hen happened to be the same one which a golf ball had been used as a gentle hint to Biddy that something was wrong in due season.

A new style of box cars was seen in the I. C. R. yards this morning. The car, No. 130,858, is just from the shops where its construction was completed this month. It is of a new design with a steel framework which shows on the outside of the car giving it an appearance of great strength. Underneath it is supported by massive girders which give absolutely no chance for transverse twisting of the frame. The car is a masterpiece of engineering.

SUFFRAGISTS IN ANNUAL SESSION

LONDON, April 26.—The attendance of delegates at the fifth congress of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance, which opened here today, was the largest in the history of the organization. Mrs. Carrie Catt of New York, president of the International League of Women
