

Seminary Notes.

All friends of St. Martin's Seminary will be glad to hear of the cheerful and hearty endorsement of the work of the school which was given at the Eastern N. B. Association. After the education meeting on Saturday evening, Bro. Warren drove me to Sackville, and on the following day I had the privilege of presenting the claims of the seminary at Bethel and in Sackville. We returned to Point deBute in time for the Missionary meeting on Sunday evening. The next day I went to Moncton, and in the afternoon started on a 75 mile drive across country to Chipman. Monday night I spent in the woods between Salisbury and Canaan. The drive through Canaan was a delight in every way. This part of our province is little known. It is a land of promise, though not exactly the promised land. The Canaan river winds in and out between green banks and under shadowing trees; the soil is very rich and the farms are thrifty and well-tilled. The people are Catholics for the most part, but they are whole-hearted and hospitable, as I now know by experience.

I arrived in Chipman on Tuesday evening, in time for the prayer-meeting in Bro. McIntyre's church. Here I had the pleasure of meeting a number of friends, both old and new. The next day I drove to Sheffield, on the St. John River, stopping at Newcastle and Little River on the way. Two or three days were spent in Sheffield, the quietest, dreamiest place on earth. Many letters which I found awaiting me, most of them asking for information with regard to our school, required answering. On Sunday, July 24, I spoke in the morning at Gibson, in the afternoon at Marysville, and in the evening at Gagetown. Though the rain poured in torrents, the church at Gagetown was filled with an audience that understood the art of listening. A great many young people were present, the material of future strength to the church. Yet there is no hand to direct and mould, for this church, like so many in the province, is pastorless. The problem grows ever more serious, and ever more difficult of solution, as to how we are to keep our young ministers, or how we are to bring their back when they have finished their course at Newton, or Rochester, or at Chicago, now greatest and most attractive and farthest away from the home land.

NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES.

Norton, Kings Co.—Two converts were baptized and received into the Norton Baptist church last Sabbath, July 31. Two others were baptized a few Sabbaths since, making fourteen up to the present. Others are seeking more light.

Sandy Cove.—On the 24th ult. four were baptized and united with the church, and to-day, 31st ult., eleven more precious redeemed souls were baptized and added to the 1st church at Digby Neck. More will follow. This is a glorious work of pure and sovereign grace. Thirty-one have been baptized since the revival began. Still pray for us.

North River Field, P. E. I.—It is some little time since I sent any notes from this field. I have entered upon my fourth year under favorable circumstances, and the outlook is very good for the future. During the three years I have been here sixty have been added to the churches by baptism. A church has been organized at Bonshaw, with 36 members. One has since been added by letter. We worship in the court house, but hope some day to rise and build a house for the Lord. Clyde River has given a contract for a new house of worship to be dedicated January, 1893. Long Creek has paid the debt on their organ, and their house is now undergoing repairs inside and out, and will be reopened some time in August. North River and Kingston are holding the lot. The sea has been patiently sown, and we hope to see a grand harvest gathered in for the Master. Two were received here by letter in June. I have over 300 church members on this field—the largest on the island. My strength is taxed to the utmost to meet the constantly increasing demand.

Ohio, Yarmouth County, N. S.—Since my arrival here I have felt at home. The people are all very kind. Although not any additions to report, we can say our hearts have been moved, and we have felt a fresh impulse for good. One of our true and tried brothers passed away last winter to his eternal rest. His presence and Christian zeal are missed in our church. Several of our brethren are now on beds of sickness. Deep sympathy is felt for them and their families. Yet we can say the will of the Lord is done. Bro. J. A. Stubbart, who labored with this church for several years, was with us on Sunday, July 17. He is now nearing 80 years. His firm hold of the truth of God and his earnest ministerial life endear him to the hearts of the people. Last Sabbath evening our missionary society gave a mission concert. The entertainment was a decided success, and reflects much credit on the society. The collection, which was for centennial fund, amounted to $12.50. We are praying for an outpouring of God's Holy Spirit in our midst. May the good Lord give us the blessing. Brethren, pray for us.

St. Mary's Bay, Digby County.—This church and Hillgrove church have requested me to spend my vacation of twelve weeks with them. Pastor Blakey, who had given up the charge here a month before I came, and was remaining here for a rest, gave me a warm welcome. This field is a wide one, and includes Barton, Hillgrove, Plympton, North Range and South Range. There is much opportunity for hard work in every section. At South Range our cause has been seriously injured by the activity of the Christian Disciples. These people have put up a very fine church, and have a pastor to visit them frequently who, it is thought, is supported largely by funds from outside. Our people here are pushing along, and have just commenced a meeting-house, which will be completed as soon as possible. It is to be regretted that the extent of this field prevents the one laboring here from giving this section more time. At Barton, the children's meeting on Friday afternoon is well attended, and a Sabbath-school is to be started at once, as several have expressed a willingness to teach. Bro. McDonald is a valuable help at Plympton. I thank the Lord for such a helper. At Hillgrove, the section where Bro. Blakey saw the power of God manifested in the conversion of many to Christ, the cause is in a very encouraging condition. North Range has many faithful workers, who sustain prayer meetings and Sunday-schools. Bro. Smith, of Barton, has furnished me with a horse and harness for the summer free of charge. I have been shown much kindness since my coming here. Sister Foster, the wife of a former pastor, has the heartfelt sympathy of the people of this church in her affliction. While on this field this sister endeared herself to all, and her name and influence will long be cherished. I am much indebted to the former pastor and family, who are still residing here, for encouragement, assistance and kindness. I found on visiting the Wagner Settlement that Sister Everett, who came out years ago from the fetters of Catholicism, was sustaining, with the help of a few sisters, a prayer meeting each Sabbath afternoon. Thank the Lord for such noble Christians. Sister Everett has two sons studying for the Baptist ministry. Here is the fruit of the French mission coming, brethren. These young men now studying in the United States are the result of the work among the French of Digby County. We Baptists have sometimes ago given up this mission as a failure and now the Lord is showing in a wonderful way the certainty of reaping. Have the words, "O, ye of little faith," any application? "Cast thy bread upon the waters and it shall be found after many days."

ANTIGONISH, N. S.—I have been "acting pastor" of the Baptist church in Antigonish since last June 5, and have received considerable encouragement in attempting any form of Christian work. The church membership—resident—is quite small—about 35 members—but with scarcely any exception, these cluster around the pastor and heartily co-operate in advancing Christian work. Prayer-meetings have generally been well attended and the time fully occupied in earnest prayer and testimony. The Sabbath-school is flourishing, and the members more than in many other places, are faithful in attending preaching services. An interest has been awakened among the unconverted. Two converts—two young ladies—were baptized last Sabbath by Rev. W. T. Stackhouse, of New Glasgow, and others, convicted of their sins, have not yet come forward. A word in regard to missionary work here. Immediately after coming, I arranged with the pastor of the Presbyterian church for monthly union missionary meetings—Sabbath evening—alternately in the Presbyterian and Baptist churches. The people all heartily concurred, and two of these meetings have been held with grand success. Addresses by the pastors, papers by members, splendid singing by union choirs, have all roused a great interest in foreign missions. I might suggest to some of the older Baptist churches of the province that they make missionary meetings interesting, should prepare their programmes at least one week before the appointed meeting. Rev. J. C. Archibald's call here did much to stimulate an interest in missions. The Carey Centennial fund has received attention by missionary collections. This church will again be pastored after August 15th next, and it is earnestly hoped that a suitable pastor may at once be obtained. True, out of a possible 2,000 population of Antigonish seven-eighths are Catholic; the Presbyterians rank next, then the Baptists, and a few Church of England. But the Protestants are strongly entrenched in the business of the place—nearly controlling it—add the Baptists, and their house is now undergoing repairs inside and out, and will be reopened some time in August. North River and Kingston are holding the lot. The sea has been patiently sown, and we hope to see a grand harvest gathered in for the Master. Two were received here by letter in June. I have over 300 church members on this field—the largest on the island. My strength is taxed to the utmost to meet the constantly increasing demand.

Digby Co. Ministerial Conference.—The Digby Co. ministerial conference was held at Smith's Cove, commencing August 1. Rev. John Williams preached from Matt. 11: 2. Among reports from the churches came the cheering intelligence through Bro. Cass, brother of Digby Neck, that since our last conference at Rosaway, Dr. Morse had baptized 31, and the revival is spreading throughout his extensive field. At the Sunday afternoon session Rev. A. T. Dykeman read an exegesis of John 21: 15-17, which gave rise to an interesting discussion. Phases of S.S. work were briefly discussed as follows: The Superintendent—Rev. W. J. Blakey; Music in the School—A. T. Dykeman; Who should Teach—Bro. Davis; The Teacher's Helper—W. H. Richards. In the evening the meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. W. McGregor, a former resident of Smith's Cove, who is now pastor of the Baptist church at Hyannis, Mass., and is spending his vacation here. Rev. D. H. Simpson reviewed the mission work of the century. Mrs. Simpson read a paper on "Training the Young in Mission Work," and Rev. A. T. Dykeman gave a description of the Telugu field and mission. The services throughout were interspersed with prayer and praise, and cannot fail to be profitable.

PERSONALS.

All correspondence for Leinster Street Baptist Church, St. John, should be addressed to J. H. Davidson, Paradise Row.

The Rev. W. H. Sherman, M. A., of Elizabeth, N. J., with Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Collins, his married daughter, are taking a holiday in Halifax. Mr. Sherman preached acceptably for the North church.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson, formerly pastor of the Cornwallis street Baptist church, Halifax, and now of Connecticut, has accepted a call to this church again, and is expected to enter upon his duties the 1st of Sunday in this month. We congratulate our colored brethren in securing the services of Mr. Johnson. It speaks well for him that he is called the second time to preside over this church. Not only in Halifax, but also in its surroundings, there is much that Mr. Johnson can do for the colored Baptist churches. We trust he may be very successful in this large and important sphere of usefulness.

As will be seen by reference to our church news column, Rev. H. P. Adams has received and accepted a call to the pastorate of the Prince Street church, Truro. Brother Adams is a preacher of fine ability. We hope that his settlement at Truro may prove to be a very happy one, and that his ministry may be greatly blessed to the church.
