DEATHS.

CHRISTIE.—At Woodville, Kings Co., N. S., Mrs. Zelida, relict of the late Russel Christie, aged 88 years.

MILTON.—At Salisbury, Nov. 22nd, Mrs. Blanche Milton, widow of the late Humphrey Milton, and daughter of the late Henry Crandall. Two little girls and a large circle of friends mourn the loss of a loving mother and faithful friend. This sister is much missed among us. Her services were always given cheerfully in the Lord's work. Through a lingering illness she manifested christian patience and died trusting fully in Christ.

FRASER.—At Chipman, N. B., on 22nd inst., of paralysis, Samuel C. Fraser, a member of 2nd Chipman church. He died trusting in Jesus.

MCBURNIE.—At Five Islands, Nov. 6, after ten days illness, William H. McBurnie, aged 84 years and nine months. He died trusting in the finished work of Jesus.

PINNE.—At Fox Point, Sunbury Co., Sept. 30, Amos Simms, fell asleep in Jesus, aged 32 years. Our brother entertained a firm hope in the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour. Death caused him no alarm. He cheerfully submitted to the will of his Heavenly Father. May the Lord comfort the sorrowing family.

LAYTON.—James E. Layton, fell asleep in Jesus in the home of his sister, Mrs. Fullerston Montclair, New Jersey, Nov. 15th. His remains were brought to Falmouth and laid to rest beside his parents. He was converted at an early age and joined the Falmouth Baptist church. His life was quiet and consistent, a christian in whom was no guile. Two brothers and three sisters mourn his departure. But their tears are restrained as they recall his joyful anticipation of going to Jesus.

DURLAND.—At New Germany, Nov. 5th, Adam E. Durland, after a short illness entered upon the rest prepared for the people of God, aged 80 years. Bro. Durland was born in Annapolis Co. He came to New Germany when a young man, was one of the earliest settlers and hewed out of the forest for himself a very comfortable home. Over fifty years ago our brother was led to trust in the Lord Jesus Christ for pardon and was baptized by the Rev. Bennett Taylor, into the fellowship of the New Germany Baptist church, of which he remained a loyal member and supporter until called by his Master to join the church above. For about forty years he filled the office of church clerk to the satisfaction of all the members. Was also an active worker in the sabbath school. Bro. Durland was very precise in all business affairs and equally so in regard to christian duties. In his death the church loses one of the main pillars of support; the pastor the warm hand clasp and word of sympathy and cheer. Our departed brother leaves a wife, the same age as himself, three sons and four daughters. We have all taken part in their joy in having so highly an honored and useful a parent and also in their sorrow in parting with one so much loved by us all. His remains were carried to the Baptist church, which he had helped erect, and after a suitable service there the funeral procession proceeded to the cemetery where they left him to await the resurrection. The funeral was large. M. W. U.

At Hampton on Friday, Justice Piers and McLaughlin convicted John Kilpatrick, of Upham, of two offences against the Scott Act, and fined him $50. Three Sussex offenders, Robert Keilie, Mary Jane Patterson and Patrick Doherty, were fined $50 each.

H. H. Holmes has been refused a new trial and sentenced to death for the murder of Benjamin F. Hotal.
