FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY.

Rothesay, June 6—Among the late arrivals of our regular summer residents are Mr. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Vassie, Mr. W. E. Foster and Mrs. James Kaye, with their families.

Mrs. Leigh Harrison spent last Friday with friends here.

Miss Louise Murray, a former pupil at Netherwood, has been a guest at the school during the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George West Jones are occupying Mr. George McKean's cottage, in the park, for the summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Davidson has returned from a visit from Boston and, with her family, is settled in one of Mr. Pugsley's cottages, where they will be year-round residents.

Mr. Robert Thomson, accompanied by Messrs. Malcolm MacKay, T. E. G. Armstrong and J. Russell Armstrong, left this week on a fishing trip to Morson Pond (P. E. I.), and will be joined there by Mr. George Hegan, who is visiting his brother in Charlottetown.

Mr. Simeon Jones, of New York, is a guest at the Kennedy House.

Mr. John M. Robinson and family are settled in Lady Tilley's chalet, in the park, for the summer.

Young Mr. Scott, who expected to spend the summer at the Kennedy House, has accepted a position as stenographer in Montreal, and left for there on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allison and Mr. W. C. Allison are at Belle View hotel for the season.

The tennis tea on Saturday last was in charge of Mrs. H. F. Puddington and Misses Edith Gilbert and Winnie Hall.

Colonel J. R. Armstrong and family have rented Mr. Peter Clinch's cottage in the park, and moved out end of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Jones and little son came out to their summer home today.

Colonel and Mrs. G. Rolt White were the guests on Friday of Mr. and Mrs. G. West Jones.

Mrs. John Magee and her little daughter Frances were guests of Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Daniel, at the rectory, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Keltie Jones and son are stopping at Belle View hotel.

Mr. James Fowler, accompanied by his son and daughter, Miss Emily and Mr. Ralph, arrived on Saturday from Cuba and went to their summer home at Gondola Point.

The members of the graduating class, 1906, assisted by some of the younger pupils, entertained a large number of their friends to a very pretty little opera, The Japanese Girl, at Netherwood on Saturday evening. The affair was under the direction of Mrs. Henry Hall, and was a great success, the music being very bright and pretty, and the singing, acting, costumes, stage decorations, marches, drills, tableaux, etc., all most pleasing. The principal characters were taken by Misses Olivia Murray, Edith Caswell, Lillie Raymond, Alice Richardson, Norah Knight, Florence Pittfield, Phyllis Stratton and Vera Brown.

Among the St. John friends of the girls who attended the play were Mr. and Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Miss Elizabeth Millar, Mr. Turnbull, Mrs. Saddlier, Miss Murray and Miss Florence Murray.

Rothesay and Hampton teams played base ball here on Saturday, with victory for Hampton.

A most interesting outing occurred yesterday when, accompanied by Mrs. W. Z. Earle, the teacher and about twenty wee tots, kindergarten pupils of St. John, came out by the C. P. R. and were met at the station by a large team and driven to The Willows, the residence of Senator Domville, and pleasantly entertained. The party returned to St. John by C. P. R. at 5.20.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, N. B., June 6—The handsome home of Hon. J. M. Johnson, Hinckley Hill, in Calais, was the scene on Friday afternoon of a very happy event, when his eldest daughter, Miss Edith, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Nelson, son of Mr. Frank A. Nelson, of the Calais National Bank, by Rev. C. G. McCully, pastor of the Congregational church. The bride looked very fair and winsome in a dainty gown of white embroidered tulle over white chiffon and silk. She wore a veil of tulle fastened to her hair with lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of the same sweet flowers. There were no attendants. The house was artistically decorated with maiden hair and asparagus ferns, roses and pink and white carnations. After the ceremony and congratulations a most dainty luncheon was served. At 6 o'clock the bride donned her traveling gown and the happy young couple drove to the summer cottage of the bride's parents, a few miles down the river, where they will spend their honeymoon and expect to spend part of the summer there, returning to their town residence in the early autumn. Many are the good wishes and congratulations to this very popular young couple for their future happiness. The guests from out of town were Mrs. Frank Nelson, jr., Miss Kate Nelson, Boston; Mrs. W. B. Howard and Miss Newcombe, St. John.
