

A vintage television set is shown, displaying a black and white image of a traditional Chinese building with a tiled roof. The television has a dark, possibly wooden or plastic, casing. The screen is rectangular with rounded corners, and the image on it is a high-contrast, grainy black and white photograph of a traditional Chinese building with a tiled roof. The building appears to be a temple or a palace, with multiple levels and ornate architectural details. The television is positioned in the upper right corner of the page.
