LOVE laughs at locksmiths, ere the knot is tied,
And night or day the door swings open wide.
But when at 2 a.m. poor hubby comes,
In search of key holes, fingers turn to thumbs.
Then Love at locksmiths does not laugh;
Let them but turn the bolt, and they may chaff.

HOT SUMMER WEATHER.

FROM off his clothes, day after day
She does not see the buttons roll;
But she is quick to notice when
His trousers pocket has a hole.

No man ever smoked "Myrtle Navy" tobacco for a fortnight and then took to any brand in preference to it. It bears its own testimony of its qualities, and it is testimony which is always convincing. The smoker who uses it is never annoyed by getting it sometimes of good quality and sometimes of bad. The arrangements of the manufacturers for keeping its quality equal are very elaborate and complete, and are the results of many years of experience and close observation.

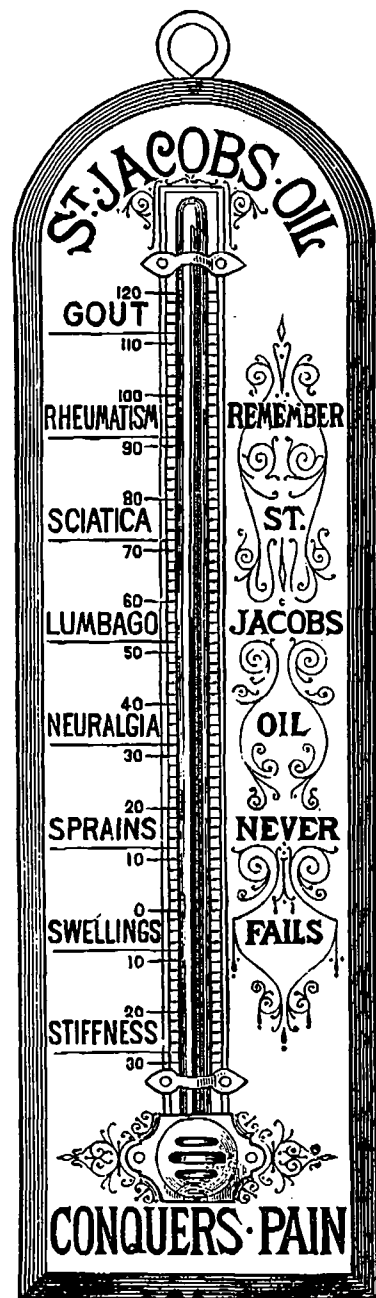

EDITOR—"We can't use your poems now."
POET—"Why should you always delight in sitting on me in preference to others?"
EDITOR—"When I sit on a poet, of course I prefer a spring poet."

WHAT this warm weather suggests is something that will boil the kettle, cook an egg, or fry a beefsteak in a hurry. Harvie's kindling wood is just the thing. Try 6 crates a dollar, delivered. Harvie & Co., 20 Sheppard St. Tel. 1570.

THE annual fall announcement of the leading wholesale dry goods house of the Dominion will be found on another page of this issue. That Messrs. John Macdonald & Co. have well earned the right to this title will be disputed by few, and a glance through the advertisement will further confirm this. The various departments there enumerated are each one of them well worthy of being a separate establishment, but owing to the immense trade done by the house throughout Canada they are necessarily grouped into one and under one roof. This season will see them as in former years replete with all the staples and novelties required by enterprising dealers, the buyers for each department having scoured the markets of the world in their efforts to surpass all previous showings. No merchant who wishes to hold and increase his trade can afford to purchase any line without first going through John Macdonald & Co.'s.

SNODGRASS—"Staggers says money is always tight with him."

SNIVELY—"No wonder. He takes so much of it to the saloon."
