The Blue and the Gray.

Both men and women are apt to feel a little blue, when the gray hairs begin to show. It's a very natural feeling. In the normal condition of things gray hairs belong to advanced age. They have no business whitening the head of man or woman, who has not begun to go down the slope of life. As a matter of fact, the hair turns gray regardless of age, or of life's seasons; sometimes it is whitened by sickness, but more often from lack of care. When the hair fades or turns gray there's no need to resort to hair dyes. The normal color of the hair is restored and retained by the use of Neatest Bicycle Suits.

Would not any lady like to have all her outdoor garments made repellant to water if she could feel sure that not the slightest difference would be made in the material? Well, we stake our reputation on the fact that cloth proofed by the Rigby Process cannot be distinguished from the same cloth not proofed, except that it cannot be made wet—nor is the free circulation of air through the cloth interfered with in the least.
