

5. On each male inhabitant of the age of twenty-one, who shall have resided in the said Town during six months, and not being a proprietor, tenant, apprentice or domestic, an annual sum of five shillings. Male inhabitants,

6. On every dog kept by persons residing in the said Town, an annual sum of five shillings. Dogs.

7. And it shall be lawful for the said Council to impose certain duties or annual taxes on the proprietors or occupiers of houses of public entertainment, taverns, coffee-houses, and eating-houses; and on all retailers of spirituous liquors, and on all pedlars and petty chapmen bringing for sale into the said Town, any articles of commerce of any kind whatsoever; and on all proprietors, occupiers, agents, managers or keepers of Theatres, circuses, menageries, billiard-tables, ball-alleys, or other games or amusements of any description; and on all auctioneers, grocers, bakers, butchers, hucksters, carters, livery stable keepers, brewers and distillers; on all traders and manufacturers, on all proprietors or keepers of wood or coal yards and slaughter-houses in the said Town; on all money changers, or money brokers, pawnbrokers and their agents, on all bankers and their agents; on all assurance companies or their agents, and, generally, on all trades, manufactories, occupations, arts and professions which have been or may be exercised and introduced in the said Town, whether the same be or be not mentioned herein; and the stores or workshops of mechanics shall be divided into a first and second class, and every ware-room or workshop which shall be declared by the Assessors to rank in the first class, shall be assessed at the rate of five shillings per annum, and those of the second class at one shilling and three pence per annum. On certain professions, trades, &c.,

And the said Council shall also have power to fix the amount of personal commutations, that is to say, of the sum payable by each person liable to statute labour on the streets and side walks of the said Town, and to refuse the labour of such person for the said purpose, if the Council shall think proper to undertake the same; Provided always, that every such sum demanded for personal commutation shall be equitably established in proportion to the labour to be done, by arbitrators, if any one of the parties shall require it. With respect to statute labor.
Proviso.

XXXVII. The said Council shall also have power to make By-laws: Council may also make By-laws with respect to:

35 For establishing one or more new market places; and for extending the market places now existing or which may be hereafter established; the whole subject to the payment of the damages which may be incurred by parties in consequence of their respective lands being encroached upon by the extension of such market places;

40 For determining and regulating the duties of the Clerks of the markets in the said Town, and all other persons they may deem proper to employ to superintend the said markets; and for letting the stalls and other places for selling upon and about said market places; and for fixing and determining the duties to be paid by any persons selling on any of the said markets, any provisions or produce whatever; and for regulating the conduct of all such persons in selling their goods; and to provide for the weighing or measuring as the case may require, by the officers named for that purpose by the said Council, and on the payment of such fees as the said Council may think fit to impose on that behalf, of any thing or things sold or offered for sale on the said markets; Clerks of markets,
