A Chat with Our Readers

Increasing the Family Income

"I have many comforts in my home, but I believe I am not different from other wives and mothers in feeling that I should like to make some extra money to spend for what some one calls 'the essential non-essentials.' There are so many things we women would like to spend that 'little extra' on each month, if we could earn it. Can The Western Home Monthly throw any light on this subject?"-Mrs. Phillips, Saskatchewan.

Such is the form of letter which now and then comes to our editorial desk as it must to the editors of any influential magazine reaching hundreds of thousands of readers, as does The Western Home Monthly.

This desire to help increase the family income is one which is sure to seize us at one time or another. Even with things going smoothly, there is always the longing for more of the good things of life, greater advantages for the children, good books, recreation, that wishedfor trip to Vancouver, or Montreal, or wherever it may be. But mother's time is decidedly limited. Her life work is close to her home. What then can she do to help make these things possible? This is a problem which we have had ccasion to solve for some of our readers.

The most readily available method whereby a woman may earn money at home is the local representation of firms manufacturing useful articles for home consumption. We find that there are several large companies in this country that have built up their different lines of the club-raising plan of The Western Sask. Home Monthly.

It is the belief of the publishers of The Western Home Monthly that its readers are its best representatives. For many years we have depended on our readers to secure for us the great bulk of our circulation, with profit and, we hope, with pleasure to themselves.

A large number of manufacturers in this country have employed this same method of local representation; and it is safe to say that there are a great many women all over this country who are making money by representing these firms. It is not difficult to locate such companies, but, like everything else, some are much better than others, from the standpoint of the representative.

Before closing negotiations with any such company or firm, first examine its literature carefully; avoid all firms that make exaggerated statements in their advertising; also be certain to examine the article which they ask you to sellbe sure that it is something your customers will want, that it is honestly made, and that it is priced fairly. Do not be tempted into selling an inferior product by the offer of a large profit. Remember that your profits in the long run will depend on satisfied customers, who will give you re-orders from time to time.

The editors of The Western Home Monthly will be glad to continue to advise its readers on this matter of increasing the family income.

The young men's page is wonderful and should be a guide for any young man who reads it. Also, the Young Woman's page, which is the same. In fact, the whole paper is instructive for old or young. We hope The Western Home Monthly may visit every home this year, and may God bless you in your efforts in making The Western Home business by selling methods similar to Monthly what it is .- H. R. Who's Your Dentist?

Every laboring man and his family should be interested in my dental work, because I am the only dental specialist in Canada that gives a guarantee with his work. You know no dentist belonging to the dental trust will give you a guarantee. You know trusts, combines and monopolies are never formed for the benefit of the public.

I am the one who first fought trust prices-the first dentist in Western Canada to give specialized dental work with a guarantee, and at prices far less in nearly every case than monopoly dentists charge.
