

The Missionary Outlook

is my Parish.
"The World"
"The Field is"

A Monthly Advocate, Record and Review.

VOL. XIV.—No. 8.]

AUGUST, 1894.

[NEW SERIES.]

Field Notes.

WE have changed the post-office address of the ministers according to the lists that have been published in the Christian Guardian; but there may be cases in which the name of the circuit and the post-office address are not the same; or from other causes the OUTLOOK may not reach the brother for whom it is intended. We will be glad if the

that we could desire. The parsonage is well furnished, and the Ladies' Aid seem bound to make us comfortable." Our prayers and best wishes go with our brother for abundant success on his new field.

ON the 24th of May last a wedding took place in connection with our West China Mission. O. L. Kilborn, M.D., medical missionary, and Retta Gifford, M.D., medical missionary of the W.M.S., were united in marriage by Rev. O. M. Jackson, of the Church Missionary Society. The newly wedded couple brethren who know of any such instances will kindly communicate with this Office.

SCENE IN JAPAN AFTER THE EARTHQUAKE IN 1891.

REV. J. W. SAUNBY, B.A., who spent seven years in Japan, and since his return to Canada has been laboring in the interests of the Society, was transferred into the Manitoba Conference at its last session, and stationed at Carberry. In a recent letter Bro. Saunby writes: "The lines have fallen unto us in very pleasant places. Carberry is a town ranking next to Portage la Prairie in the province, and is a live, thrifty place. The welcome we received was all started immediately for their new station at Kiating—not in a Pullman car, but by the only express know in that region—a clumsy Chinese junk. We wish Dr. and Mrs. Kilborn great success in their new field.

We have received the "Second Annual Report of the Canadian Colleges' Mission." This work has had its difficulties to surmount, but seems to have now reached that point where success is assured. Over $2,000 have been expended during the past year; and some fourteen educational organizations are in affiliation. Mr. John Griffith, fourth year student in