

Three-Act Play Staged In Director's Home

A play in three acts, with a cast of 20, was staged in the home studio of Peter Adamson, Mississauga Road, last Saturday.

Adamson, a photographer by trade, explained that this was the first time as far as he knew that a play of this size had been put on in a private home.

It all started out about five years ago when Peter wrote a song entitled "Away On The Wind". It was published in 1960 and he followed that up with the play by the same name. It took almost two years to finish and then Peter just put it aside.

"Last winter one of the members of the Credit Valley Dramatic Society suggested using it as one of our workshop productions," he said.

The play was produced by Mrs. Angela Platt, wife of Dr. Platt, who also acted in the play.

There were approximately 80 spectators in attendance for this home-based play and, according to all reports, it was a big success.

Among his many other talents, Peter Adamson is also interested in art, sculpture, writing, music, dramatics, etc.

Included in the "Away On The Wind" cast were: Howard Lacey, Pat Ghent, Ted Beatty, Betty Ringuet, Jan Vander-ree, John Torrington, Bill
